EVANS-TROUPE WEDDING SET FOR TONIGHT AT 8

Miss Martha Elizabeth Troupe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Troupe, of Philadelphia, will become the bride of the Rev. Hoyt Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Evans, of Weaverville, in a ceremony at 8 o'clock tonight (Thursday). The groom is pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church.

The wedding will be solemnized in the Emmanuel Presbyterian church, Philadelphia. Dr. Troupe, pastor of the church and father of the bride, will officiate.

The bride's maid of honor and only attendant will be her sister, Miss Mary Kathryn Troupe. The Rev. Roger A. Huber, assistant pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, who was a seminary classmate of Mr. Evans, will be best man. William Eberhard Sandel and David Hurst Sandel, cousins of the bride, will be the ushers.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will return to Franklin early in July, and will start housekeeping at once in the Manse.

The bride, who recently paid a brief visit to Franklin while a guest of Mr. Evans' parents in Weaverville, is a graduate of the Souderton, Penna., high school, and holds the A. B. degree from Beaver college, of Jenkintown, Penna. Since completing her college work, she has been director of art at the Mooretown Friends School, Moorestown, N. J.

Following his graduation from the Flat Creek High school in Buncombe county, Mr. Evans attended Mars Hill college and was graduated from Davidson college with the A. B. degree. He took his theological work at the Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J. He came to Franklin as pastor about a year ago.

MISS MARY SUE BROWN WEDS C. R. PENNINGTON

Miss Mary Sue Brown, daughter of Mrs. C. B. Brown and of the late C. B. Brown, of Dillard, Ga., became the bride of Curley Royce Pennington, son of Mrs. Nath Pennington, of Franklin, at a ceremony performed June 8 at the Dillard Baptist church.

The Rev. R. B. Harrison, pastor, officiated. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Louise McKinney, pianist, and Bill Stapleton, soloist. The church was attractively decorated with arrangements of smilax, white gladioli and cathedral candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. J. M. Brown, of Augusta, Ga., wore a gown of white satin, designed with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice and a full skirt ending in a train. Her veil was caught to a white coronet outlined with orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book graced with white orchids and her only ornament was a string of pearls.

The bride's sister, Miss Louise Brown, was maid of honor and the matron was Mrs. John Carmichael, of Chattanooga, Tenn. They wore gowns of ice blue taffeta with long gloves to match, and carried bouquets of white and pink gladioli and roses with matching flowers for their hair. The bridesmaids, who wore similar gowns and carried duplicate bouquets, were the misses Ruth and Barbara Brown, sisters of the bride, Eleanor Lyle, of Fort Valley, Christine Norton, of Dillard, Ga., Mrs. J. M. Brown, of Augusta, and Mrs. Clyde Pennington, of Franklin. The flower girls Juliella Curtis, of Athens, Ga., and Dee Anna Curtiss, of Jefferson, Ga., wore similar dresses of white organdy and carried baskets of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Brown, mother of the bride, was gowned in a model of grey crepe and her flowers were white carnations.

Bob Jacobs, of Franklin, was best man and the groomsmen included James Furr, J. C. Cunningham, Paul Dean, James Stockton, all of Franklin, Paul Cagle, of Clayton, Ga., and Hoke Grist and Claude Dillard, both of Dillard. Serving as ushers were Phillip Alfred, of Clayton, and E. N. Allred, Jr., of Dillard.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Brown.

For traveling, the bride wore a gray linen suit with black accessories and a cluster of white orchids. Following a wedding trip to the West and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Pennington will live temporarily in Franklin.

MISS GLADYS HANNAH WILL WED IN WASHINGTON JUNE 20

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Hannah, of Franklin, Route 1, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gladys Hannah, to Ernest Carl Wright, Jr., of Alexandria, Va. The wedding ceremony will be performed at the Baptist church in Washington, D. C., at 6 o'clock on the evening of June 20.

FRANKLIN TRIO PRINCIPALS IN DOUBLE WEDDING RITE

Three former Franklin persons, two of them a brother and sister, were principals in a double wedding at Toocoo, Ga., May 25 at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Marie Dean Burrus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dean, of Franklin, became the bride of Winston Baughn, and Miss Frances Baughn was wedded to Elton Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dav. L. Lewis, of Carolina Beach. Mr. Baughn and his sister are the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Baughn.

STRAW MAT TIME FOR MEN NOW IN FULL SWING

Last Saturday we had men's straw hats knee deep all over the place. It seemed like every man in the county wanted to get rid of his old felt and step out in a new straw. Maybe you had better come by this weekend and get yours. There are plenty left, straws and Panamas with wide and narrow bands. A good hat will cost you only $1.98, the very best Panama is only $4.95.

You ladies might be interested in the new materials received this week. First of all there is the Lauana, Acetate and Rayon in 8 colors including white. It is 39" wide and comes in starlight, pink, heather, buttermilk, Bermuda aqua, black, Baltic blue, navy, frosted julp and white. Makes beautiful, long-wearing blouses, dresses, play suits, etc. Just $1.00 yard.

Next on the list of new piece goods is the stripe chambray or shirting—a very fine silky material for your summer street and house dresses. This is the first of this material available in 5 years. It is only 69c yard. See it on the Main Floor, center aisle.

If you haven't fixed up that old lawn chair yet we can take care of you now. Awning material is available in the Basement Store at 59c per yard. A good heavy quality in wide stripes, mostly green it is 30" wide.

Don't fail to see the gift Woodbury has for you. We have tried to distribute these all over the store so you can't miss out on this great value. You get a 50c bottle of Woodbury's new Beauty Blended Lotion and a 25c jar of Woodbury's Complete Beauty Cream—both for 43c. A regular 75c value.

Maybe you haven't noticed it yet, but the next time you are in the store look at our new 2 color Neon sign over the entrance to the Basement Store. Pretty fancy stuff!

Our Book Dept. features the biggest selling book in the world at all times. We imagine you know what it is, the Bible of course. A large family Bible with good clear type is only $2.95. Nicely boxed.

It is really a pleasure to report to you men that we have low back overalls in all sizes. They are good overalls, too, a full cut garment, the very best in every way. The price is $2.79, and you will find them in the Basement Store.

Also this week we have received carpenter's white duck cloth overalls, with nail apron attached at $2.95.

If you have a gift to buy soon for birthday, wedding or anniversary, look at the pottery base table lamps featured on the first floor. They have parchment shades with attractive design and are really the nicest ones received to date. $3.95 and $4.95.

The Shoe Dept. has many new arrivals this week. We will just mention three of them. A black and white saddle shoe for ladies in sizes 3 1/2 to 9 at $4.95. This is a top quality shoe, with white rubber soles. You will like to wear them all summer long. Next is "Kamp-Mocs" a hand laced moccasin in white or red, at $3.95. We have seen this moccasin priced much higher so it seems here is a real buy for you in the best looking job on the market.

Another top notch summer shoe for ladies is the solid white moccasin toe loafer, with leather soles, at $4.95. This shoe has everything. You must see it to appreciate the quality. Sizes 4 to 9.

There never seems to be enough white Batiste to make those nice baby clothes, but if you will come by soon we have it now. White Rose quality, fine and soft, 36" wide, at 59c yard.

Remember that Belk's can supply Birdseye diapers now, at $2.95 dozen. We don't have too many but will try to get you a dozen or two any time.

If some of you ladies would like a summer dress with a little more zip to it than usual, see the new "Russell" stripe chambray, and we do mean stripe. Its smooth and soft and sanforized shrunk, 36" wide, at 69c yard.
