The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ray, of Franklin, Route 2. Mr. Doster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Doster, also of Franklin, Route 2. Members of the immediate families and a few close friends were present.

The bride wore an aqua blue suit with white and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Doster, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage was also of pink carnations.

Mrs. Doster attended the Franklin High school.

Mr. Doster is a graduate of Newport, Tenn. High school. During the war, he served two years in the army air corps.

The couple left the following Sunday for Spartanburg, S. C., where they plan to make their home. Mr. Doster is in the mercantile business in Spartanburg.

MISS CORBIN BECOMES BRIDE OF DEWAYNE A. LEE
Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Corbin, of Gneiss, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Doris Arlenia Corbin, to Dewayne A. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lee, of Pelican Rapids, Minn., in a ceremony performed at the home June 14 at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. Charles E. Parker, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church officiated, using the double ring ceremony, before an improvised altar of mountain greenery, leucathia and ferns, with tall baskets of white gladiolus, interspersed with seven branched candelabra holding lighted white tapers.

Prior to the taking of the vows, Mrs. Henry Cabe played "Liebestraum" by Liszt, Schubert's "Serenade," "I Love You Truly" and "By The Waters of Minnetonka" by Lieurance. Mrs. Wetzel Lee, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, soloist, sang "Because" and "If God Left Only You." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was used for the processional. Mrs. Lee sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin wedding gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, full skirt that lengthened into a long train, and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Otela Bryson, of Asheville, served as maid of honor. Her gown was of blue taffeta, fashioned with a high neckline, cap sleeves, with a fitted bodice and long full skirt.

Little Kay Vinson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, she wore a frock of blue taffeta and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Wetzel Lee, of Pelican Rapids, Minn., served as best man to his brother. The ushers were Duane Darrow and Frank Forbes, both of Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Following a reception held immediately after the ceremony the couple left by motor for a wedding trip through the Rocky Mountains.

Mrs. Lee, is a graduate of the Franklin high school. She attended Woman's college of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and was graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. Lee received the B. S. degree in chemistry from Concordia college in Moorhead, Minn., and is now employed by Carbide and Carbon Chemicals corporation in Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The bride's parents entertained with a dinner at Kelly's Tea Room on the Friday evening before the wedding. Guests included members of the wedding party, out-of-town persons here for the wedding, and a few close friends. Nineteen were present.
