MARKETING with Marjorie

Money certainly seems to melt these days (and not from the heat either!) That's why I'm more grateful than ever for the values I find at the A&P... and the quality of everything is always dependable. Marketing there regularly is my pet economy. Try it! And try the money-saving suggestions below, too!

THRIFTY THOUGHTS

To get almost twice as much juice as usual from a lemon, steep it in hot water a few minutes before you squeeze it.

To satisfy big appetites at small cost, choose ANN PAGE FOODS at your A&P. You'll find everything from ready-to-eat main dishes to easy-to-fix desserts in this quality-famous family of products. And when you see the modest prices on all the ANN PAGE foods, you'll understand why they're called "The Thrifty 33."

To freshen stale rolls, sprinkle them with water, wrap in brown paper and warm in a hot oven.

LOTS FOR LITTLE

My favorite day is WOMAN'S DAY—that grand magazine you can get at A&P Stores and nowhere else. It's filled with new recipes, delightful menu suggestions, fashions and movie news, as well as fascinating fiction. I'd call it a bargain at five times the nickel it costs. What's more, WOMAN'S DAY saves me plenty with its budget-stretching ideas. Get a copy at your A&P. You'll love it!

CEREAL SWEETS

The nutty flavor of SUNNYFIELD WHEAT PUFFS from the A&P is delicious in cookies made like this: Beat 2 egg whites with ¼ tsp. salt till foamy. Add ½ cup sugar gradually, beating till whites stand in peaks.

Beat in ½ cup peanut butter. Fold in 2 cups SUNNYFIELD WHEAT PUFFS and 2 tps. grated orange rind. Drop by teaspoonsful on cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven 375° F., about 12 minutes. Makes 3 dozen cookies.
