New Highway Hospital Aids Victims Of Polio

A hospital on wheels, field service unit of the National Foundation for Infantile Paral-ysis, is one of the new health services to the public made possible by improved highways.

Rabun Gap Man Striken While In Highlands Visiting Son The new mobile hospital is Thaddeus Marshall Bryson, 72 of Rabun Gap, Ga., died as the result of a stroke which occurred while he was on the streets of Highlands last Thursday morning. He also suffered head injuries when he fell at the the time he was stricken. Mr. Bryson was taken immediately to a Franklin hospital, but failed to respond to treatment.

Death occurred about noon. Mr. Bryson came from his home at Rabun Gap to Highlands Thursday morning to visit his son, Lawrence, and family at Highlands.

Although a native of Jackson he had spent most of his life as a farmer at Rabun Gap, Ga. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Bryson cemetery at Clear Creek, with the Rev Oscar Nix officiating.

Pallbearers were H. L. Wilson, Buck Chastain, Carl Chastain, and Herschel, Herbert, and Homer Bryson.

The body remained at the home of Z. V. Bryson at Rabun Gap until the hour of the fuespecially valuable, since it reaches epidemic areas in hurry, where it is used as an emergency hospital, auxiliary power unit, or as an ambulance for iron lung cases. Since it went into service less than a year ago, it has traveled some 26,000 miles, carrying patients to hospitals, operating as an auxiliary hospital unit, and making exhibition trips.

ABOUT FOOD PRICES

(Facts about retail food prices)

ES, food prices are too high. In all the talk about lower prices, let us remember this:

Day in and day out, no retailer does a better job of keeping prices down than a food merchant.

Any good food retailer will tell you that his profits have been slimmer than at any other time in history, on the other hand increased operating costs have cut profits to the bone.

Merchants generally have reduced prices as a plan of good merchandising, but we cannot reduce prices by 10% as was appealed for by President

To have a substantial and permanent price reduction on food, the retail grocer must first have a reduction on food by the manufacturer and the

Our policy is to sell quality food at the lowest practical price and we will continue to lower prices as fast as reduction in cost to us and economies in our overhead will permit.
