

NEWS about PEOPLE

HORACE CARTER HURST, JR. WEDS MICHIGAN GIRL

Miss Lois Marion Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Ritchie, of Harrisville, Mich., became the bride of Horace Carter Hurst, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Carter Hurst, of Franklin, in a ceremony solemnized at the Harrisville Presbyterian church June 28 at 4 p. m.

The Rev. H. A. Webster officiated.

Lavender iris, lilacs, and white peonies decorated the candle-lit altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of her own design. Fashioned of rose pointe lace, it had a high, round neckline, long, fitted sleeves ending in wrist points, and full skirt finished with a short, circular train. Gardenias circled by valley lilies and star of Bethlehem formed her bouquet.

Miss Alberta Stewart, of Oscoda, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Dane M. Smith, of Jackson, Mich., and Mrs. George E. Killmaster, of Harrisville, were bride's maids. Owen R. Rittenhouse, of Saginaw, was best man, and Charlie J. Ritchie, brother of the bride, and Mr. Killmaster were ushers.

Following the ceremony, dinner was served to 30 guests at Camp Big Paw, while about 150 guests later attended a reception at Alcona Beach. Assisting at the reception were Miss Barbara Hurst, of Lenoir, and the Misses Emma Lou and Frances Hurst, of Washington, D. C., sisters of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurst, who will make their home in Saginaw, Mich., after July 15, are now on a trip through the Smoky ### Mountains region.

The bride is a graduate of Alma college, and has been teaching in Saginaw. Mr. Hurst was graduated from N. C. State college, Raleigh, served three years as a navigator in the army air forces, and is now assistant sales manager of the A. T. Ferrell Seed Cleaner company, Saginaw.
