Crisp Honored For Record With Security Life

J. C. Crisp, local representative of the Security Life and Trust company, of Winston-Salem, has been accorded special recognition of that company for having won membership in the Security Leaders club.

The club is an honor group in the Security Life agency organization, membership in which is based upon outstanding performance during the preceding 12 months, both in production of new business and in service to policy holders, the announcement explains.

Mr. Crisp attended the recent Security Life convention at Myrtle Beach, S. C.
