22 ATTEND OES DISTRICT MEET

Nequassa Unit Visited By Grand Matron And Patron

When 22 members of Nequassa Chapter No. 43, Order of the Eastern Star, attended the annual twelfth district meeting in Glensville last Thursday evening, it was the second important event of the week for the chapter.

Tuesday evening was the highlight of the Chapter's year, when Mrs. Nell Porter, of Asheville, worthy grand matron, and Dr. J. Howard Brown, of Tarboro, worthy grand patron, paid their official annual visits to the order here. Other distinguished guests present were Mrs. Athalea Brown, past grand matron and wife of Dr. Brown, Mrs. Mary Swan, of Andrews, district deputy grand matron, and Gordon L. Butler, of Nantahala, district deputy grand patron.

Mrs. Grace O'Mohundro, worthy matron of Nequassa chapter, entertained the guests, together with some of the officers of the local chapter, at a dinner at Kelly's Tea room prior to the evening meeting.

At the Glensville district meeting Thursday, all phases of the work of the order were exemplified, and Nequassa chapter gave the balloting. Mrs. Frances McGlamery, of Franklin, acted as district secretary for the meeting.

Those attending from Nequassa chapter were Mesdames: O'Mohundro, McGlamery, Pauline Love, Helen Snyder, Josephine Childers, Milton Hyde, Ida Mae Jamison, Nobia Murray, Esther Cunningham, Alice Ray, Blanche Parrish, Irene Bryson, Pearl Corbin, Ruth Whitaker, Margaret Cunningham, Genett Thomas, Pearl Palmer, Josephine Long, Margaret Cabe, and Molly Bolton; Miss Lassie Kelly; and B. L. McGlamery.

Ellijay

Little Miss Joan Mincey, of Ellijay, returned home July 25, from Angel hospital, wearing a cast covering her entire body. Several of her school mates visited her at the hospital July 24, her birthday, and gave her a surprise party, bringing many gifts.

Fred Mincey, of Ellijay, left July 18 for Warren, Mass., where he is engaged in carpentry work. Claude Jones, formerly of Macon County, employed Mr. Mincey, by mail, to come to Massachusetts to build his new home.

The Ellijay quartet, Walter Young, Fred Young and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Henry, attended the Homecoming day at the Speedwell Baptist church, Speedwell, last Sunday. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Young and family of Ellijay, Mr. and Mrs. Wymer Young and family, of Franklin, Route 4, and Billy Keener, Dave Henry, and Earl Mincey, all of Ellijay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Waldrop and family, of Gastonia, who are visiting Mrs. Waldrop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Mincey, of Ellijay, attended the Waldrop reunion at Clarksville, Ga., last Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. G. Mincey.

Vacation Bible School To Open Monday At Louisa

A vacation church school will open next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Louisa Chapel, it has been announced. As has been the custom in previous years, the school will be conducted jointly for Carson and Louisa chapels, and all children in the vicinity are invited.

The Rev. W. Jackson Huneycutt, of the Franklin Methodist church, will be in charge of the intermediate class; Carl E. Ison, of Knoxville, Tenn., the junior group; Mrs. Gordon Reece, the primary; and Mrs. Fred Moore, the beginners.

The date for the revival meeting planned at Carson Chapel will be announced later, the pastor, the Rev. D. P. Grant, said.

Mashburn Finishes Building, Opens East Main Garage

The completion of a new building and opening of a garage on East Main street was announced this week by Roy Mashburn, owner.

Mr. Mashburn said that the new garage has a complete repair department, parts department, and show room.

He obtained the services of Frank and Rufus Ray to manage the service department.

Mr. Mashburn is a well known automobile dealer here, having been a partner in the City garage for many years.

Internal parasites are reducing the value of market hogs in the Southeast by more than fifty cents a head.
