FLORIDA GIRL MARRIES R. L. POTTS, OF HIGHLANDS

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Catherine Smith, of Homosassa Springs, Fla., to R. L. Potts, of Highlands, August 30.

Mrs. Potts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. King Smith, of Homosassa Springs, and is a sister to Mrs. Malcolm Zoelner, of Highlands and Homosassa Springs. Mr. Potts is the son of Postmaster and Mrs. Charles C. Potts of Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Potts are residing in one of the Marett apartments on Church street.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sargent have had as guests during the past week at their cottage on East Main street Mr. and Mrs. Rene Blanc-Roos, of Philadelphia, Penna. Mr. Blanc-Roos is professor of French at the University of Pennsylvania.

Labor Day week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Blanchard, at Blanchard court, were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cathers, of Charlotte. Mr. Cathers is a representative of the Western Union Telegraph company.

Frank G. Westbrook, of Washington, D. C., and S/Sgt. Sam Westbrook, of Cheyenne, Wyo., were recent guests of their mother and aunt, Mrs. A. L. Westbrook and Miss Fannie G. Lucas, at their home on the Dillard road.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dudley, of Athens, Ga., spent the week-end at the summer home of Mrs. Dudley's mother, Mrs. Charles du Bignon, preparing the property to turn over to its new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Curt A. Wilson, who purchased the place some time ago for a year-round residence.

Dr. Thom Carter, his mother and daughter, Mrs. Haidee Carter and Miss Anne Carter, had as week-end guests at the Baptist parlorium Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Barnett, of Alken, S. C.

Miss Allie Sue Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Price, left Wednesday to enter the nurses' training class at Mission hospital in Asheville. Miss Price is a Highlands High school honor graduate of last June.

Mr. and Mrs. George Saussy and family returned to their home in Columbia, S. C., last Saturday, after spending the season at "Highfield" on the Waihalla road. Mrs. Saussy will leave Columbia the middle of September by plane for a visit with her son and daughter-in-law in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. O. F. Schiffli left Friday to return to Clewiston, Fla., where she has accepted a teaching position in the Clewiston High school. Going down with Mrs. Schiffli was Miss Anne Eidson, of Thomasville, Ga., and Highlands, who has accepted her first teaching position in the same school.

Capt. and Mrs. Val S. Pierson and baby daughter, of Fort Benning, Ga., were Labor day week-end guests of Capt. Pierson's father, S. P. Pierson, at his home on the Bowery road.

Rotary Club Will Hold Ladies' Night Program On Tuesday

The Highlands Rotary club will observe its annual ladies' night next Tuesday with a barbecue supper, to be served at 7 p. m. in the park opposite the post office.

The supper will be followed by an open air square dance on Main street, it has been announced by S. C. Russell, club secretary. Mr. Russell added that invitations have been extended by the Highlands club to a number of adjacent Rotary clubs to join in the festivities.
