MRS. H. G. STORY

APPLEY-MOLL WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN GARDEN

The marriage of Miss Margaret Ann Appley to John Frederick Moll was solemnized Saturday afternoon, September 20, at 4:30 at "Cheecondah Gardens", with the Rev. Father A. F. Rohrbacher officiating, assisted by the Rev. Edward Honlhan, of Evanston, Ill.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Leonard G. Appley, wore a dress of heavy white satin. Her three-tiered veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias centered with a white purple-throated orchid.

Miss Mary Appley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of fuchsia taffeta and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses tied with yellow satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Ann Noble, of Evanston, Ill., who wore a rose taffeta gown; Miss Maxine Wright of Highlands, gowned in blue taffeta; Miss Mona Bensef of Palm Beach, Fla., wearing a chartreuse taffeta gown; and Mrs. Patrick Appley of Atlanta, sister-in-law of the bride, whose gown was of gold taffeta. The bridesmaids carried identical bouquets of yellow and gold chrysanthemums, tied with yellow and gold satin ribbon. Their taffeta gowns were fashioned with short puffed sleeves, net neckline and draped bustle in the back.

Arthur Gunter of Atlanta was best man. The groomsmen were Patrick Appley of Atlanta and William Appley, of Miami, Fla., brothers of the bride. Ushers were Robert Noble and Jack Noble, of Evanston, Ill., and Sam Baty, of Highlands. Patty Appley, of Atlanta, young nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer. He wore a navy blue Eton suit and carried the ring on a small white satin pillow.

The ceremony took place in the formal garden. The aisle was formed by two lines of white satin rope topped with white satin bows at the supports. The altar was decorated with a white lace cloth, on which were two vases of white chrysanthemums and gladiolus. Completing the altar decorations were two silver candelabra.

The reception, which immediately followed the ceremony, was held indoors at "Cheecondah Gardens", the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Baty. The home was decorated with an assortment of flowers. The table, overlaid with an imported lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white dahlias and begonias.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Howard Noble, of Evanston, Ill., aunt of the bride, Mrs. Samuel Baty, and Mrs. Frederick Moll, mother of the bride-groom.

The music was arranged by Mrs. Augustus Holt, assisted by Mr. Herman Moll. Miss Martha Holt sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life", and Melvin Ladson sang "Because", and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Marion Norton, in a white off the shoulder chiffon gown and purple orchid, kept the bride's book.

Immediately after the cutting of the wedding cake, the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to New York. For traveling, the bride chose a three-piece suit of brown tweed with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return from New York, the young couple will reside in Jacksonville, Fla.

JANE ANDERSON HAS 12TH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Jane Anderson celebrated her 12th birthday anniversary with a party September 17 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson on Fourth street.

Following an afternoon of games in which Mary Jo Newton won the prize in the only contest, refreshments were served in the dining room, where a pink and white color scheme was used. A bowl of pink and white dahlias centered the table. Place cards were pink and white baskets holding candy and nuts. The white birthday cake was decorated in pink and held twelve pink candles.

Guests enjoying the occasion with Jane were Beverly Cook, Martha Reese, Anne Rideout, Guerry Matthews, Elaine Hopper, Emily Potts, Linda Watson, Mary Lou McCarty, Mary Summer, and Mary Jo Newton.

SUMMER BUYS THEATRE SITE

Two Main Street Lots Bought, Plans Are Being Worked Out

Two lots with a frontage of 66 feet on Main street, across from the post office and adjoining the Marett property, have been purchased by O. F. Summer for a theatre building site.

Mr. Summer said, however, that he has no immediate plans for the erection of the theatre but that details are being worked out for a modern structure when building conditions become more favorable.

The new location for Highlands school, purchased last year by the county board of education, consists of approximately 15 acres in the sloping valley between Sunset Rocks and Satulah mountain, about a quarter of a mile from the center of the village.

SAVING FUEL

IS A COMFORTABLE FEELING

With fuel costs on the upgrade, have you ever thought about getting along on less fuel? There's one way you can—and get more comfort in the bargain. Insulate with Baldwin-Hill Rockwool. You'll feel the difference the minute we finish the job. Walls and attic floor no longer drain off furnace heat. You warm up every corner of every room to an even temperature—and do it at a saving. Up to 40% less fuel, because you pay only for heat that keeps you warm. Your furnace takes it a lot easier, too, no matter how the temperature drops.

It costs nothing to find out more about B-H Home Insulation. Phone us for the complete story and an estimate of costs.
