MRS. H. G. STORY

MISS SARAH HALL HONORED BY SHOWER AT HARBISON'S

Mrs. Tom Harbison entertained with a shower Thursday afternoon at her new home on the Walhalla road, complimenting Miss Sarah Hall bride-elect of Richard L. Orr of Lansing, Mich.

Gifts for Miss Hall were arranged in a white garden cart decorated with dahlias and wheeled in by little Miss Tina Harbison and Master John Tucker Hall dressed as a bride and groom. While the gifts were being opened, "advice to the bride" notes were written by the guests and collected and presented by Ann Harbison, who wore a dainty floor length blue frock. Table decorations were white candles and dahlias with miniature bride and groom, miniature bronze boots holding bachelor buttons and bride's slippers holding forget-me-nots.

Preceding Miss Hall's arrival, guests were shown through the rooms of the new home and asked to suggest a name for it. The varied suggestions were read and turned over to Mrs. Harbison for further consideration.

Assisting the hostess in entertaining were Miss Gertrude Harbison and Miss Dorothea Harbison.

HIGHLANDS SCHOOL FACULTY HONORED

Approximately one hundred and fifty persons attended the reception given Thursday afternoon by Miss Marguerite Ravenel and Miss Clare Ravenel at their summer home, "Wolf Ridge", honoring members of Highlands school faculty.

The home was decorated throughout with dahlias given and arranged by Mrs. Louis A. Edwards.

A feature of the entertainment was the showing of kodachrome pictures of local wildflowers by Dr. J. Mason Valentine. A tour of the grounds and gardens was also enjoyed by the guests as well as the magnificent mountain views. The custom of entertaining the teachers of Highlands school and all persons interested in the school was begun by the Miss Ravenels six years ago, the event gaining in popularity each year.

ANDERSON BRIDGE CLUB GUESTS OF MRS. HORTON

Mrs. L. S. Horton entertained members of her Anderson, S. C. bridge club with a bridge luncheon Thursday. The three tables of players arrived at Mrs. Horton's summer home on the Asheville road at 10:30, and after a number of progressions they were taken to the Potts House where a delightful luncheon was served at 1 o'clock.

Included in the courtesy were Laura Ledbetter, Lydia Tucker, Lalla Farmer, Betty Marshall, Hattie Klue, Helen Orr, Esther Harris, Dorothy Fant, Juliet Spear, Lucy Cathcart, Mary McBride, Ann McWherther, Ruth Seabrook and Edythe Quinn.

PRESBYTERIANS ENJOY LAWN PICNIC

Sunday school members of Highlands Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic on the lawn at the home of the Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel last Sunday following the Sunday morning church service. The Miss Ravenels supplied the hot cocoa for the occasion and the picnic lunch was brought by the Sunday school members. The brilliant autumn coloring of the grounds and the surrounding mountain sides formed a perfect setting for the picnic.

DR. MATTHEWS GUEST SPEAKER AT CLUB MEET

Highlighting the October meeting of the Satulah Club, held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hines Friday afternoon, was the talk by Dr. William A. Matthews on the establishment of a clinic in Highlands. A schedule of winter working plans for the club was made at this meeting and entertainments for next summer discussed. Mrs. Carl Zoellner and Mrs. Harry Holt were appointed leaders of the two teams in the club membership drive, which is to get under way immediately.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. I. Westbrook.
