SERVICE GUILD MARKS ITS TENTH ANNIVERSARY

The tenth anniversary of the Wesleyan Service guild of the Franklin Methodist church was celebrated at the regular meeting last Wednesday night, held at the home of Mrs. Carl P. Cabe.

Gifts were presented by Mrs. H. A. Wilhide, guild president, to the eight charter members of the organization. Those receiving moments of the occasion were Mrs. Roy Cunningham, Mrs. Grover Jamison, Jr., Mrs. Bill Grimm, Mrs. L. A. Ross, Mrs. Neal Johnston, Mrs. A. B. O'Mohandro, Mrs. Carl Tysinger, and Mrs. Carl Cabe.

Mrs. Hunter Calloway led a worship service, and Mrs. Cabe, first president of the organization, gave a brief resume of the history of the organization since its founding in 1937.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake, and hot chocolate were served in the dining room, which was attractively decorated in a Hallowe'en motif.

Mrs. Lee Guffey, Mrs. Ellis C. Soper, and Mrs. Carl Jamison served as co-hostesses with Mrs. Cabe.

MRS. SLOAN HONORED WITH SURPRISE SHOWER

More than 40 friends gathered at the new home of Mrs. W. N. Sloan to surprise her with a "house warming shower."

Following the presentation of many useful gifts and a tour of the new home, the guests adjourned to the home of Mrs. A. A. Siler, next door, for refreshments.

Co-hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Siler and Mrs. Fred Slagle, assisted by Mrs. Bob Sloan and Mrs. John Bulgin.

ERIKSSONS GIVEN FAREWELL DINNER AND DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Eriksson were the guests of honor at a farewell dinner and dance given Saturday evening at Buck Creek ranch by personnel of the Nantahala National forest. Mr. Eriksson has recently been transferred to the Atlanta office of the U. S. forest service. The family left Monday for Atlanta.

Following a dinner, served buffet style, Mr. and Mrs. Eriksson were presented with a cherry bed-side table by Toastmaster Clint Johnson on behalf of the forest service employees. Following short talks by E. W.

Renshaw and Mr. Eriksson, the chairs were pushed back and the floor of the big living room of the ranch house was cleared and dancing for the evening was begun with an old fashioned Virginia reel.

Guests for the evening were: Mrs. Sue Vandiver, Miss Byrda Nell Southards, Mr. and Mrs. Renshaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Land, Mr. and Mrs. Eriksson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell, Edwin W. Shope and Miss Dorothy Holden, W. N. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nothstein, John Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Bob S. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. John Wasilik, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John D. Alsop, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clint Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hunnicutt, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards Willion, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Green, Marvin Hoover, Miss Ren Diegel, and Gray Waldroop.

Meeting Of W. S. C. S. To Be Held Friday

Women's Societies for Christian service of Macon County Methodist churches will hold a zone meeting at Snow Hill church, on the Franklin circuit, tomorrow (October 17).

The meeting will start at 10:30 a. m.

All Methodist women of the county, regardless of whether they are members of the organization or of whether a society has been organized at their church, are invited, Mrs. Fred Slagle, zone chairman, said. It is hoped, Mrs. Slagle added, to organize a society in every Methodist church in the county.

Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva, has been invited to address the meeting.

Each woman attending is asked to bring a covered dish for a "pot luck" lunch to be served at noon.

BUILDING SUMMER HOME

Charles Moore, of Gastonia, is building a cabin at what is known as the Western Loudermilk place on Upper Ellijay. Mrs. Moore, after spending several weeks here with him, has returned to their home in Gastonia.
