MACK SAYS:

Yep, we're all moved. No, can't say we're straight yet. (Did you ever move? You did? Then you know what we mean!) But we're proud of our new home, we're going to be able to serve you better there, and we cordially invite you to come visit us. We'll be happy to show you our new place, whether you come on business or not.

curb, and offered to pay one-third the cost if the board would raise the sidewalk to the level of the curb and lay new concrete. Mayor T. W. Angel, Jr., was asked to see Mrs. Gus Leach and T. W. Phillips, in front of whose property a similar situation exists, and learn if they also would be willing to share in the cost of rebuilding the walk. The mayor was authorized to have all or part of this side walk rebuilt if he can get a reasonable bid.

Mrs. L. H. Page Returns From Father's Funeral

Mrs. L. H. Page returned last week from Boston where she attended the funeral of her father, E. A. Day, who died there on October 24. Mr. Day's death was caused by a heart attack.

Mr. Day was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport where he had gone to spend the winter. He was known here, having spent a great deal of time in his later years visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Page.

Zvoda To Conduct Services Sunday At First Baptist

Walter Zvoda, lecturer and evangelist of Asheville, will conduct the morning and evening services at the First Baptist church here Sunday, it has been announced. In the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Charles E. Parker.

Mr. Zvoda, who has traveled in Europe and Palestine, has announced his morning topic as, "How I Met the High Priest". At the evening service, he will show pictures of the Holy Land.

Mr. Parker is conducting a series of revival services at Forbush church, near Winston-Salem. Before returning to Franklin, he will attend the Baptist church convention, which will open Tuesday at Winston-Salem.

Dairy farmers with an abundant supply of good-quality hay and other roughage can cooperate in the nation's food conservation campaign and at the same time cut down feed bills by feeding considerably less grain to growing dairy heifers.
