Halts Stolen Car; Captures Thief, Escaped Convict

Bert Beasley, escapee from the Murphy prison camp, didn't get far when he got into Furman Corbin's automobile about 1:45 a. m. last Thursday and drove off.

Mr. Corbin, who heard the car start, telephoned Night Policeman T. W. Phillips, and within 10 minutes the automobile had been recovered, and Mr. Phillips had taken the thief in custody.

Beasley, who was returned to the prison camp, is serving a 10-year term for auto theft. He will be brought here for trial at the December term of superior court, Mr. Phillips said.
