MRS. H. G. STORY

'SUNSHINE' SHOWER GIVEN FOR 3-YEAR OLD ANNE REESE
Elaine Hopper entertained with a "sunshine" shower last Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hopper, in honor of three-year-old Anne Reese, who is convalescing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert

Reese, following a severe illness of several weeks in Angel hospital in Franklin. Sixteen guests enjoyed the occasion and a sweet course was served following an afternoon of games. The gifts were arranged in an attractive basket and Elaine and a number of her small friends took them down to Anne on Thanksgiving day. Radiantly happy over the surprise, little Anne evaded the usual custom of opening "sunshine" gifts a day at a time and opened them all immediately, with a pleasure that could only have been equaled by a visit from "Old Santa Claus."

PRESBYTERIAN GROUPS ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Members of the junior choir of the Presbyterian church, their parents, members of the Woman's auxiliary, and elders of the church were honored with a Thanksgiving turkey dinner last Wednesday evening by Miss Marguerite Ravenel and her sister, Miss Clare Ravenel, at "Wolf Ridge", their summer home on Sunset Rocks. The 18 members of the choir were seated at the long dining room table which held as a centerpiece Christmas evergreens and was lighted with white tapers. The parents and other guests were seated at small tables in the living room. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Elliot Caziarc, Mrs. W. H. Cobb and Mrs. R. B. DuPree, the Rev. DuPree and Dr. William Duane, nephew of the Misses Ravenel. Approximately 40 persons enjoyed the occasion.

In the afternoon preceding the dinner party, the Misses Ravenel were hostesses at the November meeting of the woman's auxiliary. WALTERS-RAINWATER INVITATIONS RECEIVED Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Miss Barbara Jean Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maurice Walters, of Shelbyville, Ky., to Lupton Veazey Rainwater, son of Chas. Veazey Rainwater, Sr., and of the late Mrs. Rainwater. The ceremony will be solemnized December 20 at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Presbyterian church in Shelbyville.

Personal Mention

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Mitchell and daughter, Margaret Ann, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Hawkinsville, Ga., with Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ryan, going down Tuesday and returning to Highlands Friday.

Mrs. Maxwell C. Weaver returned to Cincinnati, Ohio, Sunday, following a Thanksgiving visit with her sister, Mrs. Jack Wilcox, and family at their home on Billy Cabin mountain.

Mrs. T. M. Keener has returned to her home on Flat Mountain, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Maggio, and family in Rochester, N. Y., and had as her Thanksgiving guests Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Millkey and family, of Atlanta.

Mrs. George Cleaveland and children have joined Mr. Cleaveland in Fairfax, Va., for the winter, and have leased their home on Fourth street while they are away.

Mrs. William C. Nail has joined the clerical staff of the Highlands postoffice for the Christmas season.

Col. and Mrs. Elliot Caziarc had as Thanksgiving guests Mr. and Mrs. James Randall and children, of Atlanta.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Young, daughter of Mrs. O. E. Young, of Highlands and West Palm Beach, has accepted a U. S. government overseas position and sailed November 25 to begin her two-year assignment in Germany.

Miss Ethel Calloway, of Atlanta, spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Calloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harbison and daughters, Ann and Tina, left Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Harbison's brother, W. R. Rice, and family at Rice hotel in Stuart, Fla. They will visit in Palm Beach before returning home. Their youngest daughter, Jessie, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. T. G. Harbison, on the Walhalla road while her parents are away.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Coolidge, of Atlanta, Ga., spent the Thanksgiving holidays at their summer home on Whiteside mountain, and had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Monro B. Lanier, of Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Smith, of Sarasota, Fla., were among the Thanksgiving week-end guests registered at Hotel Ed-

Plan Community Christmas Fete At Highlands Dec. 23

A Highlands Community Christmas festival, sponsored by the Highlands Community Theatre, with the cooperation of the local churches, will be held Tuesday, December 23, in the school auditorium.

The program is scheduled to start at 7 p. m., and is so planned as to last not more than one hour, so that even the youngest members of the family may attend, it was pointed out. There will be no charge for admission. Use of the auditorium is being donated by O. F. Summer, lessee.

The auditorium will be decorated by members of the Episcopal church. A one-act Christmas play, "The Littlest Shepherd," by Florence Myerson and Colin Clements, will be given by the Community Theatre group, under the direction of Mrs. Jack H. Wilcox, with Mrs. Jack Brockway and John Westbrook assisting. Christmas music will be provided by a chorale choir from the Presbyterian church, a solo by a member of the Methodist church, an adult choir from the Baptist church, and a quartet composed of Miss "Blackie" Vinson, her father, Ernest Vinson, Alvin Crow and Lloyd Rogers.

The Highlands merchants are being asked to decorate their stores for Christmas. Mrs. Brockway, chairman for decorations, has announced that at 5 p. m. on the Saturday before Christmas a committee of judges will award a prize of two tickets for each Community Theatre performance in the 1948 summer season to the merchant considered to have the best decorated store. In addition, the Boy Scouts have agreed to erect a Christmas tree in the center of town.

The board of the Community Theatre, composed of Col. Ralph H. Mowbray, president, Mrs. Thomas Fitz Patrick, Arthur Little, Miss Winifried Eskridge, and Mrs. Wilcox, agreed at the late summer meeting to extend the theatre program throughout the entire year, with at least one play scheduled for late fall and early spring.

The play which the board had planned for late fall was canceled to give preference to the high school dramatic club production, which was given for the school student body on wards. Mr. and Mrs. Smith celebrated their eighteenth wedding anniversary while here.

Mrs. Sam Baty left Tuesday for a visit in Philadelphia, Pa., where she will be the guest of Miss Ellen Kronenberger and Miss Anne McCauley.

Miss Sara Gilder entertained with two tables of bridge Thanksgiving night at her apartment on Oak street. W. H. Cobb won high score prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Threl, of Atlanta, spent Thanksgiving week-end at their home on Whiteside mountain. They were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss, at the home of the former, on Thanksgiving day.

Col. Ralph H. Mowbray had as his Thanksgiving week-end guest Craig Cranston, student at Clemson college.

Thanksgiving day. This Christmas festival is the theatre group's substitute contribution to the life of the community. It is hoped that the festival will become an annual event.

2 Gifts To Highlands Lunch Room Total $75

Two contributions were recently made to the Highlands school lunch room, it has been announced. Miss Marguerite Ravenel donated $50 to the lunch room, and C. V. Rainwater and Mrs. Martha Brown Edmondson contributed an additional $25.

A course in after-dinner speaking has been given at the U. S. Naval academy for several years.
