Dave Franklin

Dies At Clark's Chapel Home At Age Of 80

Dave Franklin, 80, died at his home in the Clark's Chapel community last Friday morning at 7 o'clock, following an illness of several years.

Born in Haywood county, Mr. Franklin had lived in Bryson City most of his life. He moved to the Clark's Chapel community three years ago.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Wells Grove church, with the Rev. W. L. Buchanan, of Bryson City, and the Rev. Arvid Swafford, of the Iotia community, officiating. Burial followed in Clark's Chapel cemetery.

Mr. Franklin is survived by his widow, the former Miss Roxie Tabor; three daughters, Mrs. L. D. Henderson, of Gastonia, Mrs. T. A. Grant, of Cullasaja, and Mrs. Willard Buchanan, of Cullasaja; three sons, Grover Franklin, of Everett, Wash., Otis Franklin, of Franklin, Route 2, and Nebo Franklin, of Cullasaja; and seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were grandsons and sons-in-law.

Potts funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Convict Killed In 60-Foot Fall At Quarry Here

Clarence Lyerly, 29-year old convict who was a native of Washington, D. C., inmate in the local prison camp, was killed instantly early last Friday afternoon when he slipped and fell approximately 60 feet down the side of a rock quarry where he was working. The quarry is located about six miles south of Franklin, near the Clayton-Franklin highway.

Lyerly was working on the top side of the quarry, moving some rocks with a crow bar when he slipped and fell, officials of the prison camp said.

He had been sentenced last June in Cumberland superior court to serve six to eight years for participating in an armed robbery.

His body was sent to the family in Buncombe county for burial.

Blaine, Chastain Burned In Gasoline Blaze At School

Bob Blaine and Furman Chastain received severe burns Tuesday on the hands, face, and neck from flames caused by gas fumes' becoming ignited in a grease pit at the school bus garage in the rear of the Franklin school.

They were immediately taken to Angel hospital for treatment, with Mr. Blaine still in the hospital.

The Franklin fire department was summoned and the flames were put out in a few moments by use of an extinguisher. No property damage was done.

AS I'M SEEING A WONDERFUL PLACE

In 17 years serving the public as a groceryman, managing 15 stores in 15 towns, I have never fallen in love with a place as I have Franklin, this community, and surrounding territory.

I think the people here are wonderful. I just like everything here—people, climate, scenery, in fact just everything.

I want to thank the people of Franklin, Macon County and the surrounding towns and community for the splendid support that they have given Dixie-Home Super Store and assure everyone that we employes of Dixie-Home Super Store will always do our best to please you in every way.

Low food prices, plus friendly service.

Again thanks!
