Highlands High Students Entertained By P. T. A. With 'Cabaret' Party

The mid-season party for the Highlands High school students, given at Helen's Barn by the Parent-Teacher association, was a successful event of Thursday night of last week. The Barn, the use of which was given by Mrs. Helen Wilson and her son, Vernon, was arranged in the form of a cabaret, and the cabaret idea was carried out throughout the evening, with the students and P. T. A. members participating in folk games, and the adults providing floor show acts between games.

Approximately 80 high school boys and girls entered Helen's Barn, were greeted by doorman Likembest Summer, and shown to reserved tables of the famous Helen's Cabaret by the noteworthy headwaiter, Hall of the House of Tudor London.

Immediately the party got into full swing with that genial Irishman, Bob Dupree as master of ceremonies. Bob, with his "tails", cane, and top hat in constant motion, introduced throughout the evening famous entertainers and personalities and their acts. There were Evelina Summer, with a costume borrowed from "Grand Ole Opry", who sang in a nasal key "Dear Evelina," accompanied by Donald Duck Keener on his guitar, and Mexicali Rose (Mrs. Louis Edwards) in full Spanish costume, who fascinated the men of the party and amused the women with her dance and song.

One of the school committee members was introduced as a trusty (trustee), Charlie Chaplin Anderson. He did quite a job of waiting, what with trick ties and mice on his tray. Other "waiters" who did a perfectionist job with trays, towels and lace-edged aprons, were Bus

Boy Newton, Hairbreadth Harry Holt, Sr., and Likembest Summer. Comedian Tom Thumb Harbison, in red pants, satin bow tie, and yellow hat, highlighted the evening with a mixture of clownish and magic tricks. His satellite, Liberson, the forgotten woman (Mrs. Tom Harbison) with chairs tied around her neck, and carrying three green feathers in an attempt to keep cool, with a continual annoyance to both the students and the P. T. A. members.

Mrs. Tudor Hall as Cigaritta Marguerita, the cigarette girl, peddled a tray of candy, and was in constant demand. Guitar Willie (Hays), whose recitation was received with hilarity, was also a member of the Barbeque Quartet, made up of Tom Thumb, Donald Duck, Bus Boy Newton, and Hairbreadth Harry.

Of course, that Gossiping Woman (Mrs. Jack Wilcox) had to be there, and with her whispering song wowed the crowd, thank you dear! To say nothing of the dress she wore.

Between acts of the floor show, the master of ceremonies introduced folk games in which both students and adults took part, to the accompaniment of piano music rendered by Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary Dupree. The folk games included Circassian Circle, a Caucasian game; Push the Business on, a western game; Carousel (Mercury-go-round) Swedish folk game; Up Town and Back, Dutch folk game; and the Grand March.

During the evening hot chocolate, chicken salad sandwiches, and cookies were served by the waiters. These refreshments were prepared by the refreshment committee, Mrs. Louis Edwards, Mrs. W. C. Newton, and Mrs. Manson Valentine. At the close of the evening, the school song, written by Mr. Dupree, was sung by the entire party.

The entertainment committee for the party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dupree,

Poland, according to a recent announcement by the Unitarian Service Committee of New York. The hospital, which is to be dedicated on Washington's birthday, is a joint project of the committee and the Polish government through its national social insurance division.

Mrs. Tudor Hall and Mrs. Tom Harbison.
