

Four Macon Students Are In College Play

"He Who Gets Slapped", "Smilin' Through", and "Kiss and Tell". He is a senior, with a major in science and is a member of the Science club and of the Veterans club.

Clayton Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ramsey, Franklin, is technician for the production and plays a minor role. He, too, has been active in dramatics throughout his college work. He played in "The Famous Mrs. Fair" and has been technician for two years.

Joe. Ashear has been confined to his home for several days, due to illness.
