POLIO DRIVE FINAL TOTAL

Break-Down Made Public Showing How Amount Was Raised

The final total in Macon County's 1948 polio fund cam-paign was $1,959.98, it was announced this week by J. H. Stockton, county chairman The county's quota was $1,620.

In announcing the total, Mr. Stockton made public an itemized statement, prepared by Treasurer Claude Bolton, of the sources from which the total came and issued the following statement of appreciation:

"It being impossible to do so personally, I wish to take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to each and every one in Macon County who helped make the 1948 March of The success. school children, their teachers, and every one called upon, cooperated and responded 100 per cent. As a matter of fact, I be-lieve the people of Macon County are the best to be found anywhere in responding to a good cause; and I think I can best express myself with the simple phrase, 'Thank you, one and all'."

Of the amount raised, the largest single total was the contributions made in response to a special letter. This figure was

Boys Get Thrill When They Kill Four-Foot Bobcat

Two Ellijay boys recently had the thrill of their lives when they brought home a bobcat.

The boys, Sanford and Billy Peek, aged nine and 11, killed the animal with a shotgun. It measured four feet from the tip of its nose to the end of its stumpy tail.

The boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peek. They made their kill on Kirby mountain, in the Ellijay section.

Breeders' association conducted 16 purebred hog sales during 1947, and sold 354 hogs for $36,-257, according to Jack Kelley, extension swine specialist at State college.

Mr. Kelley said that this was quite an increase over the 1946 sales, when 136 hogs were sold for $13,174.

The highest average received for purebred hogs during 1947 was obtained by breeders from Forsyth county when they con-signed 11 hogs to the national sale at Centerville, Ind., the specialist said. These, hogs sold for $2,372, or an average of $215.63 per head.

Plans for next year's sales have already been made, Mr. Kelley said.

Not only is the association planning these sales, but it has set up the following four point program to be carried out this year:

Improve purebred hogs by production testing; use pasture to prevent worms and diseases; consign only outstanding hogs to purebred sales; and, take part in county and district fat barrow shows.

In 1812, under stress of war with England, the South Carolina legislature, to promote manufacturers, offered a bounty to a cotton mill.

The better the jobs they have with us

The better the job they do for you!

HERE ARE EIGHT of the 28,000 people who are Esso Standard Oil Company today. From Nell the telephone operator to Jimmie the salesman, they have two things in common...they're mighty good people, in mighty good jobs.

The average length of employment for all our workers is over 14 years. Over 8,400 have been with us over 20 years. Their skill and loyalty on the job help a lot, day after day, in turning out quality products in this highly competitive business.

One reason for this unusually good working team is the unusually good jobs they have. Over 30 years ago this company set out always to be a good outfit to work for... to give the human needs of workers a key place in all planning.

With employees, their unions, and management all working steadily together, this policy has led to many unusual job advantages. It has kept wage rates high. It has led to employee benefit plans which include retirement with life income at 65, cash-savings plans, vacations with pay, generous accident and sickness benefits.

But the important point is how this combination of good workers in good jobs has had good results for so many people...Good for the workers, of course. Good for the company. Good for the thousands of stockholders who own the company. Goot I for the communities where these people make good taxpayers, good customers of local stores, good neighbors.

And good results for you, in your car or home or factory or our your farm.

Today, for instance, the whole petroleum industry is working overtime to meet the greatest defined for its products in all history—and this staff of skilled, experienced people is your assurance that everything possible is being done with this company's facilities to meet your needs for more and better petroleum products.
