MRS. COBB ENTERTAINS WITH BRIDGE-LUNCHEON

Mrs. Frank H. Potts won high score guest prize at the bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. W. H. Cobb Tuesday at her home on Satulah road. Other prize winners were Mrs. John B. Westbrook and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall. Three tables were in play.

Personal Mention

A. C. Holt returned last week from his usual winter's vacation in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Col. and Mrs. G. S. Brownell were guests at Hotel Edwards for two days last week before returning to Charleston, S. C., where they have had an apartment for the winter.

Miss Ruth Lewis returned to Atlanta Monday after spending several days here with her aunt, Mrs. S. T. Marett, who is ill at her home on Main street.

Roy H. Holt has returned to Highlands after spending several weeks in various Florida cities.

College Honor

Won By Miss Norton; Others On Roll

In a recent announcement of honor students by Brevard college, Miss Edna Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Norton, of Highlands, is listed as the only honor student out of 11 in the pre-college division having all A's at the end of the fall and winter semester. Her sister, Miss Leona Norton, is listed among the 72 students on the college honor roll.

Another student from Highlands on the college honor roll is Miss Evelyn Phillips, daughter of Mrs. J. R. Phillips and the late Mr. Phillips. Miss Phyllis Kline is also on the college student honor roll and is listed from Highlands. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Kline, are at present residents of Asheville, but own a home in the Whiteside Cove section of Highlands.
