MISS BLUMENTHAL WEDS MR. GREENBURG IN ATLANTA
Miss Margie Blumenthal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Blumenthal, of Franklin, became the bride of Alvin H. Greenburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Greenburg, of Atlanta, in a ceremony performed at the Mayfair club, Atlanta, at 7 p. m. February 15. Rabbi Harry H. Epstein officiated.

MISS RUTH BRYSON

The altar was adorned with an arrangement of woodwardia ferns and white gladioli, lighted by the glow from white tapers in seven-branched candelabra.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in flesh satin, designed with Point d'Angelace bodice and billowy skirt which extended into a train. Her tulle veil was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried white hyacinths and white orchids.

Mrs. Stanford Guggenheim, of Philadelphia, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a dinner, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New Orleans and Mexico. At the dinner, Mrs. Blumenthal received her guests in aqua chiffon, embroidered in pearls and sequins, and wore a cluster of purple orchids.

Mrs. Greenburg is a graduate of the Franklin High school and of Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro.

MISS RUTH BRYSON WILL MARRY TENNESSEE MAN

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bryson, of Cullasaja, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Elizabeth Bryson, to Samuel Quentin Ritchie, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Ritchie, of Elizabethton, Tenn.

Miss Bryson is a graduate of the high school department of Brevard college, Brevard, attending Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and at present is a student at Elizabethton College of Commerce, Elizabethton, Tenn.

Mr. Ritchie is a graduate of the Elizabethton High school and attended Elizabethton College of Commerce. He served with the armed forces in the Pacific during the war, and at present is in the furniture business at Elizabethton, as a member of the firm of Ritchie's, Inc.

Plans for the wedding are incomplete.

PLAN REVIVAL HERE IN JUNE

Church Will Conduct Community Meeting At Tabernacle

The committee in charge of the Friendship Tabernacle here has obtained the services of the Rev. John R. Church for a community-wide revival in June, it was announced this week.

The series of evangelistic services has been set for June 6 through June 18.

Dr. Church, who has many friends and acquaintances in this county, is an approved general evangelist, it was pointed out. His home is in Winston-Salem, but he spends most of his time conducting revivals in communities throughout the country. At present he is holding meetings in Florida.

The Tabernacle committee, in asking the support of ministers and laymen of all denominations in the county, requested that churches in the county keep the dates in mind and plan nothing that will conflict with the revival series.

The tabernacle, which is non-denominational, is operated by a committee made up of all the Franklin clergymen and two laymen, Roy H. Mashburn and Herbert Angel. Friendship Tabernacle is situated in the Bonny Crest section of Franklin.
