KEEPING THE CONSTITUTION A LIVING DOCUMENT

THE HISTORY OF OUR COUNTRY IS A RECORD OF DYNAMIC CHANGE, OF GROWTH AND PROGRESS. YET THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES IS AS ALIVE TODAY AS THE DAY IT WAS WRITTEN. THE RESPONSIBILITY OF INTERPRETING AND APPLYING THE CONSTITUTION TO THE DEVELOPING NEEDS OF THE NATION AND THE PEOPLE HAS RESTED WITH THE SUPREME COURT. IT IS MEN LIKE OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES WHO, IN THE JUDICIAL ARM OF OUR GOVERNMENT, HAVE GIVEN VITALITY AND DIRECTION TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESSES OF OUR REPUBLIC.

cashier; and W. W. Bryson, assistant cashier.

The teller's window, officials explained, merely accepted checking account deposits and cashed checks.

The branch bank will provide all the ordinary services of a bank—make loans, keep its own books—and thus have immediately available for depositors information about their accounts—accept time deposits, etc.

The bank has announced that it will pay one per cent on time deposits.

MEDLIN AGAIN NAMED PASTOR

Will Divide Time Between
Robbinsville, Highlands
Methodist Churches

With the approval of Bishop Clare Purcell, the Highlands Methodist church will resume its regular Sunday worship services in April, it has been announced by Dr. C. N. Clark, of Waynesville, district superintendent.

The Rev. W. T. Medlin, Jr., who has been pastor of the Robbinsville church for the past two and a half years, will divide his time with the Highlands church, spending two weeks of each month here, and two weeks in Robbinsville.

The schedule for the Highlands church is the second and fourth Sunday mornings at 11 o'clock, beginning the second Sunday in April. This change in Mr. Medlin's work is made possible by the fact that the Fontana church, with which he shared his time, is calling a full time pastor.

Mr. Medlin served the Highlands church from October, 1944, to October, 1945, and members of the congregation have expressed pleasure at his return. Mrs. Medlin is the former Miss June Thompson of Highlands.

Lenten Service Is Set
For 3 This Afternoon

Lenten services this week at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, instead of the usual evening service.

Court's School Ruling To Have No Effect Here

The recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, barring religious teaching in the public schools, will have no effect in Macon County, in the opinion of Guy L. Houk, county superintendent.

Macon County schools hold chapel services, at which the Bible is read, Mr. Houk said, but he added that he does not believe the court's decision applies to such services.

There is no sectarian religious teaching in the schools of this county, the superintendent continued, explaining that that is what he understands the court has held is in conflict with the constitutional separation of church and state in this country.

BEG YOUR PARDON

Last week's account of the results of the Highlands P. T. A. questionnaire contained a typographical error that was misleading, and which The Press is glad to correct.

Replies to the question: Does your child like eating in the lunch room? were published as: Yes, 2; no, 22.

The figures should have been:—
Yes, 23; no, 22.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express sincere appreciation to our many friends for the kindness shown us at the time of the death of our wife and mother, Mrs. Hettie Talley, and for the beautiful floral offerings.
