MISS CLARA SUE PANNELL WEDS ROBERT C. MOONEY
Miss Clara Sue Pannell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Pannell, of East Franklin, became the bride of Robert C. Mooney, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mooney, of Franklin, in a candlelight ceremony at 9 p. m. Sunday evening, March 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dillard, in Dillard, Ga.

The Rev. J. F. Marchman, a former pastor of the First Baptist church here, officiated, using the single ring ceremony. The vows were spoken in the living room before an improvised altar of mountain greenery, ferns, and pink and white gladioli. Tall floor baskets held the flowers, and seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers were used.

The bride was attired in a navy blue suit, with navy and white accessories. She carried a white Bible, topped with an orchid intertwined with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Mooney, the youngest daughter of her parents, is a graduate of the Franklin High school, class of 1942, and is employed by her father as a bookkeeper at the Pannell feed store.

Mr. Mooney is a graduate of Farragut High school in Concord, Tenn. He attended Western Carolina Teachers college, and served in the navy for three years during the war. He is employed by the Mooney Motor company.

Mr. and Mrs. Mooney have returned from a short wedding trip, and are making their home in East Franklin.

MISS SOUTHARD IS GIVEN SHOWER BY MRS. CHURCH
Miss Byrda Nell Southard, fiancée of James E. Perry, Jr., was honored with a tea and linen shower by Mrs. H. E. Church Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Church's home on Harrison avenue.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Church and Jane Long, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward Long.

Arrangements of spring flowers were used throughout the house.

Mrs. J. Ward Long presided at the tea table, which was laid with an imported Chinese embroidered cloth, and the Misses Ann Ray, Katherine

Long, and Mildred Cabe assisted in serving. Severity-five guests called during the afternoon.

MRS. DOWDLE, MRS. HOUK HONOR MISS SOUTHARD
Mrs. C. N. Dowdle and Mrs. G. L. Houk entertained with a bridge party and handkerchief shower, honoring Miss Byrda Nell Southard, bride-elect of James Perry, at the home of Mrs. Houk last Thursday afternoon.

Bridge was played at four tables.

Mrs. J. Ward Long won high score, Miss Katherine Long second high, Miss Ann Ray low score, and Mrs. Charles Ferguson, of Winston-Salem, was awarded consolation prize.

Spring flowers were used throughout the house, in keeping with a color scheme of yellow and white. Ices, in the form of cupids, decorated cakes, nuts, and mints were served.

Miss Southard was showered with handkerchiefs, and was presented a silver tray, on which a miniature bride and groom had been placed.

THORPES TO ENTERTAIN WEDDING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. S. Thorpe will entertain the Perry-Southard wedding party and the out-of-town guests here for the wedding at their home on Harrison avenue Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to express our appreciation to the many friends who helped us, in giving clothing, food, furniture, and also the taxi drivers and American Legion, who collected donations for us, since our home and all furnishings were burned February 29. To everybody, for whatever they may have done, we are grateful.
