Miss Maxie Wright, student at Western Carolina Teachers' College, spent a recent week-end here with her mother, Mrs. Helen Wilson, and family, and had as her guest Miss Lowe Alley, a fellow student.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hector, of New York and Miami, and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Farnsworth, of Memphis, Tenn., were among the guests registered at the Potts house the past week.

Mrs. Bertha M. Jones, of Spartanburg, S. C., was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Matthews and family have returned from a two weeks' vacation in Florida.

M. S. Thompson, University of North Carolina student, is expected home this week-end to spend the Easter vacation with his mother, Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson and family.

Proper feeding of the laying flock is very essential.

There is little or no advantage in grinding corn for beef calves, as the added cost usually more than offsets any advantage.

WILL OPERATE BRANCH BANK—Above are the members of the staff of the Jackson County Bank of Highlands, which opened as a branch bank Monday morning. Left to right, they are Miss Caroline Hall, Miss Marian Norton, and J. W. Williamson. Misses Hall and Norton operated the teller's window, which the branch bank succeeds. Mr. Williamson, who comes to Highlands from Florida, is cashier of the new branch bank.

80 Highlands Youngsters Hear Concert

Eighty Highlands school children and approximately 50 grown-ups attended the afternoon and evening concerts given by the North Carolina Little Symphony orchestra in Franklin Monday.

In addition to the Boy Scout bus, a number of public spirited citizens combined forces to see that all school children who wished to attend the afternoon concert had a way to go. The Parent-Teacher association which sponsored the transportation through a committee composed of Mrs. Carl Zoellner, Mrs. Jack Wilcox and Mrs. R. B. DuPree, expressed thanks to all car owners and drivers who helped to make the trip possible for the children.

DEPOSITS MADE ON FIRST DAY TOTAL $52,235

Full Banking Facilities Are Now Available To Community

The Highlands branch of the Jackson County Bank opened for business Monday morning, replacing the teller's window the Sylva institution has maintained in Highlands for the past 14 years.

During the day, 63 depositors deposited a total of $52,235.58, it was announced. John H. Dewey, formerly of New York City, who is building a home on Whiteside, was the first new depositor.

The branch, providing all the regular banking facilities, is being operated by a staff of three—J. W. Williamson, who comes to Highlands from the Florida National Bank, of Lakeland, Fla., cashier; Miss Marian Norton, assistant cashier; and Miss Caroline Hall, bookkeeper. Miss Norton and Miss Hall have handled the teller's window previously maintained in Highlands by the Jackson County bank.

The local loan and executive committee for the branch bank is made up of C. J. Anderson, F. A. Edwards, and F. H. Potts.

A number of the officials of the Sylva institution were present for the formal opening.

The Jackson County Bank, with total resources of more than four and a half million dollars, is headed by S. W. Enloe, president. R. L. Arial is executive vice-president; E. L. McKee, vice-president and chairman of the board; R. W. Harris, vice-president; W. J. Fisher, vice-president.
