HONOR MISS JONES AND CHAMBERLAIN WITH BUFFET

Mrs. Allen Siler and Mrs. W. E. Hunnicutt entertained with a buffet supper Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Siler, honoring Miss Dorothy Jones and Clinton Chamberlain, whose engagement recently was announced.

A color scheme of green and white was used. The table was centered with an arrangement of white tulips and snapdragon. The honorees were presented by the hostesses with a pair of lustre vases.

Covers were laid for 28 relatives and close friends of the young couple.

W. C. SHEFFIELD GIVEN 75TH BIRTHDAY DINNER

W. C. Sheffield, of West's Mill, was honored by Mrs. Sheffield and their children Sunday with a birthday dinner, the occasion marking his 75th birthday anniversary.

With the exception of William Troy Sheffield, of Bristol, Va., who was kept away by illness, all of the children were present for the celebration, and many neighbors and friends called during the day to offer congratulations, a total of about 75 being present.

The children, in-laws, and grandchildren home for the anniversary were Mrs. Terrell Bryson, and Mr. Bryson, Mrs. Grady Reno, and Mrs. Grace Wilson, all of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. E. B. Rickman, of Canton, Mrs. Hugh Cathey and Mr. Cathey, of Canton, Edward and Billy Sheffield, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Sheffield, of Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Sheffield and four children of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Vednon Sheffield and two children, of Canton; Harold Sheffield, of Clyde, and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sheffield, of West's Mill. Also present was a nephew, Jesse Downs, and his family, of Franklin, Route 4.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB WILL MEET SATURDAY

The Junior Music club will meet with Jo Ann Henderson Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The program will be given by piano pupils who are to enter the annual Federation music festival in Asheville April 10.

Allen Siler is spending this week here with his family.

Miss Southard Weds

James E. Perry, Jr., Miss Byrda Nell Southard, daughter of Frank Southard, of Asheville, became the bride of James E. Perry, Jr., son of Mrs. J. E. Perry, of Franklin, and of the late Mr. Perry, in a candlelight service Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Franklin Methodist church.

The Rev. Charles E. Parker, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was given by Mrs. Henry Cabe, organist, and Harold Lang, vocal soloist.

The church was decorated with arrangements of Easter lilies, white gladioli, hemlock and pine, and with white lighted tapers in seven-branched candelabra.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of duchess satin made with a round net yoke and bertha, fitted bodice, and full skirt, which ended in a long, circular train. Her veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of rosebuds, lilies-of-the-valley, and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. J. Ward Long served as matron of honor. She wore a gown of yellow taffeta, fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline, fitted bodice, and full skirt. She wore white lace mitts and her headdress was of yellow plumes. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Ann Ray, Mildred Cabe, and Louise Pendergrass, of Franklin, and Miss Jessie Sutton, of Decatur, Ga., cousin of the groom. They were attired in dresses of powder blue taffeta fashioned like that of the matron of honor. They wore white mitts, and their headdresses were of powder blue plumes. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

Jané Long, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward Long, was flower girl, and Landis Pendergrass, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pendergrass, was ring bearer.

Winton Perry served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Vic H. Perry, brother of the groom, J. Ward Long, John M. Archer, Jr., Frank L. Henry, Jr., and Roger Sutton, of Franklin, and Boyd Sutton, Jr., cousin of the groom, of Decatur, Ga.

Mrs. Perry, mother of the groom, was attired in a grey crepe dress and wore a corsage of violets and pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother.

The bridal table was covered with an embroidered linen cloth and was centered with an old epergne holding white sweet-peas, lilies-of-the-valley, and white candytuft, flanked with silver candelabra holding white lighted tapers.

At the reception, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Houk received the guests, and Mrs. J. N. Dowdle, Mrs. Grace O'Mohundro, Mrs. Comer Vandiver, Mrs. Roy Pendergrass, Miss Katherine Long, and Miss Merrily Brooks assisted in serving.

After the reception, the couple left by motor for a wedding trip through Florida. For traveling, the bride wore a navy blue gabardine suit with navy blue and pink accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from the bridal bouquet.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen, of Andrews, William Holliday, of Siler City, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Southard, uncle and aunt of the bride, of Sylva.

MRS. WELCH ENTERTAINS WITH SHOWER FOR HURSTS

Mrs. C. C. Welch entertained at her West's Mill home with a miscellaneous shower for Mr. and Mrs. John Hurst, recent bride and groom, the evening of March 12.

The couple received many attractive and useful gifts from the some 50 or 60 guests.
