

Mrs. Christy Dies In Andrews; Once Lived Here

Mrs. T. J. Christy, 84, the former Miss Cora Bryson, of Franklin, died at her home in Andrews last Friday. Long a semi-invalid, she had been seriously ill for two weeks.

A daughter of James Holmes Bryson and Mrs. Cornelia Siler Bryson, she was a sister of the late A. S. Bryson, of Franklin.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Matt Knight, of Asheville; four daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Peters, of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Paul Jordan, of Andrews, and the Misses Jean and Gladys Christy, both of Andrews; and the Misses Jean and Gladys Christy, both of Andrews; and three sons, John and Harold Christy, of Andrews, and Rogers Christy, of Winston-Salem; and five grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Andrews Methodist church, with the pastor, the Rev. C. Washam, assisted by the Andrews Presbyterian and Baptist ministers, officiating. Burial was in the Andrews cemetery.

Wayah Sunrise Service To Have Unique Setting

Hull's Sunday school groups, and the churches of the Franklin and Macon Methodist circuits. Any interested person, of any or no denomination, is invited, it was emphasized.

Plans for the service were made by a committee made up of the Rev. Charles E. Parker, Franklin Baptist pastor, Mr. Brendall, Mr. Evans, Mr. Grant, and Mr. and Mrs. Hull.

Arrows are being placed at road forkings to direct motorists to the site of the service. Traffic from a point just below the top of Wayah and "High Haven" will be one-way, it was pointed out. Following the service, hot coffee will be served to the worshippers. Mr. Jones is providing the coffee, sugar, and cream, and a group of young women will make and serve the coffee.
