MRS. H. G. STORY

W. H. O. CLUB HOLDS EGG HUNT AND PARTY

The W. H. O. (We Help Others) club held its annual Easter egg hunt and party Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. W. M. Cleaveland.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Coward, of Chapel Hill, were Easter week-end guests of Mrs. Coward's father, Frank H. Potts, and Mrs. Potts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Potts returned home Saturday from a trip to Leavenworth, Kansas, where they visited Capt. and Mrs. Dean A. Rhody, returning by way of Tampa and Sarasota, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Russell, of Orlando, Fla., arrived Tuesday and are guests at the Potts house.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Perry left Saturday to spend Easter with Mr. Perry's sister, Mrs. George Saussy, and family in Columbia, S. C., and will visit in Charleston before returning home.

Miss Frances Crunkleton, student at Lees-McRae college, Banner Elk, arrived Friday of last week to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Crunkleton.

Mrs. J. H. Beale has returned from Fairfax, Va., where she spent two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. George Cleaveland, who is recovering from a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Reynolds, Jr., and family, of Waynesboro, Ga., spent Easter week-end at their summer home on Bearpen mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Smith, of Anderson, S. C., spent Easter week-end at their summer home on the Walthalla road.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ledford, a son March 26 in the Clayton hospital. Mrs. Ledford is the former Miss Louise Wilson of Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Chastain have returned to their Florida home, following a visit here with Mrs. Chastain's mother, Mrs. Florence McKinney, and with Mr. Chastain's mother, Mrs. Zeke Chastain. The latter is convalescing from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Worley stopped over at their summer home on Satulah mountain for several days this week, following a visit with their son, Cadet Richard L. Worley, at West Point Military academy.

Robert Zahner Makes Dean's List At Duke

Among the 145 North Carolina students at Duke university who made the dean's list last semester is Robert Zahner, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Zahner, of Highlands. Membership of the dean's list is given those making a "B" average grade, and entitles them to six class cuts during the semester, instead of the regulation three absences.

George Sargent To Be Pro This Season At Highlands Club

George Sargent, well known in golfing circles, will succeed the late Jeff Modie as golf "pro" at Highlands Country club this summer according to a recent announcement from Atlanta.

Mr. Sargent served for six years as president of the Professional Golfer's club, and was professional at East Lake Country club in Atlanta for 15 years, where he was succeeded by his son, Harold Sargent.

Presbyterian

Choir Gives Oratorio; Egg Hunt Held

Easter activities at the Presbyterian church began with an oratorio on Good Friday night, presented by the 26-member choir.

At the Sunday morning worship service, conducted by the Rev. Jack B. Davidson, pastor, the church was decorated with Easter lilies, white gladiolus, white roses and ferns in memory of W. G. Culbertson. At the request of the family, who are in Honolulu, the flowers were furnished and arranged by Mrs. M. M. Hopper, Highlands florist.

On Sunday afternoon an Easter egg hunt was held on the church grounds for the Sunday school members, to which all parents were invited. Teachers supervising the egg hunt were Miss Sara Gilder, Miss Dorothea Harbison and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson. Prize winners were Joan Jenkins, James Newton, Tommy Savage and Duane Edwards. Approximately 60 persons attended the egg hunt, and punch was served at the conclusion of the festivities.

Funeral For Mell, Highlands Man's Brother, Is Held

Funeral services for Thomas Sumner Mell, 89, were held in Athens, Ga., Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Surviving brothers include James C. Mell of Highlands, who went down for the funeral, Dr. John D. Mell and E. B. Mell, of Athens.

Mr. Mell was a former mayor of Athens and a former state representative. He held three degrees from the University of Georgia, getting his A. B. degree in 1878, civil and mechanical engineering degree in 1879, and his bachelor of law degree in 1880, and had practiced law from that time until his retirement two years ago.

He was the son of the late University of Georgia Chancellor, Patrick Hues Mell and Lurene Cooper Mell, and was born on the University campus.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of William C. Culbertson, of Highlands, who passed away one year ago, April 4, 1947:

Today recalls sad memories Of a loved one gone to rest, Those who think of him today Are the ones who loved him best.

Friends may think we have forgotten

When at times they see us smile, But little do they know the heartaches

That one's smile hides all the while.

His Wife,
Louise Culbertson
