MISS HENDRIX BECOMES BRIDE OF G. W. REAP

Miss Woodine Hendrix, daughter of Mrs. Charles Hendrix, of Gainesville, Fla., and of the late Mr. Hendrix, and Gordon W. Reap, of Tampa, Fla., were married in a quiet ceremony at St. Agnes Episcopal church here Monday afternoon.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with masses of dogwood and lighted cathedral tapers.

Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones presented a program of wedding music, playing "To A Wild Rose", by MacDowell, "Liebestraum", by Liszt, and "O Perfect Love". The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Hugh M. Hendrix, of Trenton, Fla. She wore a powder blue costume suit, an original model, with navy accessories, and carried a white prayer book, on which was a white orchid.

Mrs. Harley Lyle, Jr., was her sister's only attendant. She wore a tan bengaline suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow sweetheart roses.

The groom had as his best man his brother-in-law, George Hardy, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Ushers were Allan Brooks, Jr., and J. M. Hendrix, of Palatka, Fla.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lyle, Jr., entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a luncheon at their home on Harrison avenue, after which the bride and groom left on a wedding trip to New Orleans, La.

The bride attended Florida State College for Women, where she was a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority. She is a charter member of the Gainesville Junior league.

Mr. and Mrs. Reap will make their home in Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Higdon and daughter, Julia Ann, are spending a fortnight in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brumfield and daughter, Mary, of Charlotte, spent the week-end with Mrs. Brumfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Steele.

MISS ANNIE LOU HUSCUSSON

MISS HUSCUSSON WILL WED JAMES H. TALLENT

Miss Fannie Edwards, of Franklin, Route 3, has announced the engagement of her niece, Miss Annie Lou Huscusson, to James H. Talient, Jr.

Miss Huscusson, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Huscusson, is a graduate of the Franklin High school, where she majored in commerce. For the past two years she has been employed as cashier at The Franklin Press.

Mr. Talient, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. (Jim) Talient, of Franklin, Route 3, attended the Macon County schools, and spent about 18 months in the armed forces, a year of which was overseas. He is now employed in Gastonia.

The wedding plans have not been announced.

MISS WILLIAMS, FORMER FRANKLIN RESIDENT, WEDS

Miss Louise Claire Williams, of Clarkston, Ga., formerly of Franklin, became the bride of the Rev. Hunter J. Bassett, of Decatur, Ga., in a double ring ceremony at Glenn Memorial chapel, Atlanta, March 19.

The Rev. James R. Ray, assisted by the Rev. Charles T. Gray, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Bassett is the daughter of Mrs. N. G. Williams, of Clarkston, and of the late Dr. Williams.

Miss Betty Williams served as her sister's maid of honor, and bride's maids included Miss Helen McGarity and Miss Elise Hammond, of Clarkston.

Claude Morris, of Avondale, was best man, and groomsmen were Hugh Bassett, of Decatur, and Gene Hampton, of Clarkston.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, J. Robert Williams, was gowned in a street-length dress of blue crepe with matching hat and black accessories. She carried a white Bible, topped with a white orchid.

Following a wedding trip to Charleston, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Bassett are making their home at 368 Mell avenue, Atlanta.

BLAINES ARE HONORED ON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McKelvey entertained with a buffet supper at their home on Bidwell street Tuesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blaine. The occasion was the Blaines' seventh wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Blaine was presented a number of attractive gifts, and cards were played, following the supper.

Guests, in addition to the honorees, included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean.
