MISS HUSCUSSON WEDS
JAMES H. TALLENT, JR.

Miss Annie Lou Huscusson became the bride of James H. Tallent, Jr., in a candlelight ceremony at 8 o'clock last Saturday evening at the Presbyterian manse. The Rev. Hoyt Evans, Franklin Presbyterian pastor and pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The manse was attractively decorated with dogwood and greenery.

The bride was attired in a suit of beige, with which she wore pink and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The only attendants were Mrs. Fred Edwards, the bride's aunt; Mrs. John Cothorn, the groom's sister; Dock Tallent, brother of the groom; and Ralph Cunningham.

The bride, who is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Huscusson, is a graduate of the Franklin High school, where she majored in commerce. She has been cashier at The Franklin Press for the past two years.

The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. (Jim) Tallent, of Franklin, Route 3, attended school in Macon county, and was in the armed forces for about 18 months. He is employed in Gastonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Tallent will make their home in Cramerton, near Gastonia.

MRS. DUNCAN ENTERTAINS
AT 8-TABLE BRIDGE LUNCH

Mrs. Frank B. Duncan entertained with a bridge-luncheon last Friday afternoon at Panorama Courts. The main dining room was attractively decorated with dogwood and iris.

Following the luncheon, bridge was played at eight tables.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

Mrs. J. E. S. Thorpe, high score; Mrs. Marvin Hoover, second high; Mrs. Paul Russell, first bingo; Mrs. Ben Grant, second bingo; and Mrs. Roy Geoghagen, low score.

Guest prizes were presented to Mrs. Horace DeHart and Mrs. Edwin B. Whitaker, of Bryson City.

MISS HUSCUSSON GIVEN
PRE-WEDDING SHOWERS

Miss Annie Lou Huscusson, who became the bride of James H. Tallent, Jr., Saturday evening, was honored at several pre-nuptial social events.

She was given a surprise shower at the Business Girls circle of the Franklin Presbyterian church last Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse. The manse was attractively decorated with dogwood and greenery for the occasion, and Miss Huscusson received many attractive gifts.

Friday evening Miss Nettie Hurst, Mrs. Cecil Austin, and Miss Daisy Hunnicutt entertained for the bride-to-be at Miss Hurst's home, Franklin, Route 3, with a miscellaneous shower. The house was decorated with yellow spring flowers, and the lace cloth for the tea table was laid over a yellow base. In the course of the evening, the honoree cut the bride's cake.

About 50 guests were present, and showered Miss Huscusson with many attractive gifts.
