

Hall Child Dies After Long Illness

Doris June Hall, 12, of the Bethel community, died at Angel hospital at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night, within an hour after being rushed to the hospital.

The child, who had been bed-ridden since January, was the daughter of Boise Hall, well known as the Asheville Citizen-Times circulation representative here, and of Mrs. Hall.

The funeral service was held at the Bethel Methodist church Monday at 11 a. m., with the pastor, the Rev. D. P. Grant, officiating. Interment was in the Arnold Plains cemetery, near Canton, with the Rev. George Culbreth assisting in the graveside rites.

Pallbearers were Cecil Crawford, A. G. Kinsland, Dr. T. J. O'Neil, Davis Morgan, and Pritchard Peek. The flower-bearers were Mary Sue Potts, Georgia Nell McDonand, Louise Moore, Kathleen Webb, Sally Grant, Bessie Belle Holland, Nancy Grant, and Freda Elliott. Bryant funeral home was in charge of the arrangements.

Survivors, in addition to the parents, are a sister, Christine, and three brothers, Bergen, Judson, and Don Hall.

Stricken with rheumatic fever when she was seven years of age, the little girl was left with a rheumatic heart, and had been physically able to attend school only part time. She became ill in January, and had been confined to her bed since that time. Her condition became serious only a short time before she was taken to the hospital.

A member of the Bethel Sunday school, she always showed a keen interest in the Sunday school, and was a regular reader of the Bible.

Farm Clean-up Suggestions Offered By Specialist

The farmer who gives his place a real spring "cleaning" now will not only improve the looks of his farm but will also make it healthier and easier to keep "trim" the rest of the year, says C. B. Ratchford, extension farm management specialist at State college.

He offered the following clean-up hints for farm families: Gather and dispose of all tin cans. Either bury them or punch holes in them, to avoid providing breeding places for mosquitoes.

Pick up all loose wire. Don't overlook the old baling wire which has accumulated. It is easy to find now before grass and weeds have grown. Later it will tangle in machinery, trip persons and animals, and cause a great deal of other trouble.

Be sure all broken glass is disposed of, thus preventing cuts on children's feet next summer.

Check fences and repair those broken or falling down. A good fence adds to the appearance of the farm; a poor one detracts.

Right along with the fences, fix those gates so they swing free and easy.

Clean up the feed room, granary, corn cribs, and wood house. Don't provide hiding places for rats and breeding places for insects. Clean, well-arranged outbuildings will save time later.

Burn all branches pruned from the trees and bushes in the yard and orchard.

Apply paint where needed. A coat of paint will help the looks of many buildings and make them last years longer.
