Rotary Club

Votes To Sponsor Senior Girl Scout Troop

The Franklin Rotary club, at its meeting last Wednesday evening, voted to sponsor a senior Girl Scout troop here. A senior troop of Girl Scouts was organized recently, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert L. Porter.

Mrs. Tom Phillips, Mrs. John Edwards, and Miss Virginia Bryant are assisting Mrs. Porter in directing the Scouts. The basement of the Methodist church has been chosen as the meeting place, and meetings are held each Thursday night at 7 o'clock.

The troop already has 15 on its roll.

The club's decision to sponsor the troop was in response to an appeal, made by three Girl Scouts—Elizabeth Jones, Julia Hunnicutt, and Martha Ann Stockton—who appeared before the club at its April 28 meeting.

The Rotarians already are sponsors of the local Boy Scout troop.

Seek $2,000 For Chamber Work In '48

an investment that pays handsome dividends, and expressed the hope that the time will come when there will be a chamber of commerce for all Macon County, since what affects one part of the county affects all other parts.

In the course of the discussion, it was brought out that the chamber must have money for newspaper advertising, a secretary's salary, postage, the advertising folder, the tourist accommodations directory, and many other items.

Frank B. Duncan called attention to an attractive page advertisement the chamber has in the current issue of "High Tops", a publication with a distribution of 20,000.

Mayor T. W. Angel, Jr., suggested that Western North Carolina Associated Communities and the TVA are compiling information on this and other counties that will be of great value. He also expressed appreciation for chamber of commerce cooperation in obtaining the Van Raalte plant here.

W. C. Burrell predicted that, judging by past experience, the workers will have no difficulty in obtaining memberships.

Harold Lang suggested—and his suggestion was made a motion and carried—that the Franklin folders be made available to gas stations for distribution to out-of-state motorists who pass through Franklin.

Mr. Burrell provided native fish—trout and bass—that he had caught for the dinner meeting, held at Cagle's cafe.

Those who are making the membership canvass are R. R. Gaines, Clyde Galley, Bob Sloan, Paul West, William Katenbrink, H. H. Gnuse, Jr., D. A. (Red) Stewart, Frank Henry, Jr., W. W. Sloan, C. J. Mooney, Harold Lang, Grant Zickgraf, Rafe Teague, Clyde N. West, Mrs. Lester Conley, Mrs. C. N. Dowdle, Erwin Patton, Mrs. Lyman Higdon, Mrs. Thad Patton, H. W. Cabe, Kenneth Bryant, Prelo Dryman, and Mrs. Kenneth Neal.

Presbyterians Resume Work On New Building structure, and work, which had to be interrupted for lack of materials, was resumed this week.

With $8,000 on hand or in sight, the congregation has as its first aim to get the walls up and the roof on. But it is hoped that additional funds can be raised, so that the building can be completed now.

With this in mind, church officials are seeking contributions from business houses and individuals in Franklin and vicinity, to supplement what the members have raised.

The two-story addition, to be of brick veneer on hollow tile, will be 38 by 54 feet. It will provide three Sunday school rooms, a study, an assembly room, and a kitchenette on the first floor, and four Sunday school rooms and a chapel on the second floor. Installation of a heating plant, to heat both the present and the new structure, and the restoration of the bell tower also are proposed.

The addition will have the effect of increasing the capacity of the church cantuary by about one-third, since about a third of it is now partitioned off for temporary Sunday school rooms. The full sanctuary will seat about 150.

C. S. Brown is supervising the construction work, which is under the general direction of two church committees.

The building committee is made up of J. B. Ray, chairman, J. S. Gray, John Bulgin, Mac Ray Whitaker, and Mrs. Wilson Smart. Members of the finance committee are Ernest Rankin, chairman, J. Ward Long, Randolph Bulgin, B. L.
