Johnson Saves Macon County $154,000

In 1937 Macon County was in default in its bonded indebtedness. It then had outstanding $606,000.00 at a 5½% interest rate, $175,000.00 at a rate of 6% and $34,000.00 at a rate of 5%.

The annual interest charge on the 5½% issue was $33,330.00. The annual charge on the 6% issue was $10,500.00, the annual charge 5% issue was $1,700.00, making a total interest charge of $43,847.00 per year.

At that time the total tax valuation of Macon County was $5,526,209.00. In order to raise the annual interest on its indebtedness it would have required a tax rate of approximately 80c on the $100.00 valuation, which was beyond the ability of the taxpayers of Macon County.

In the long negotiations for refunding with the bondholders, conducted through the Local Government Commission, of which Charles M. Johnson was Chairman, the bondholders representatives insisted that no change in interest rate should be made in the new refunding bonds to be issued in place of the defaulted bonds. The County Commissioners and County Attorney of Macon County insisted vigorously that this County could not carry this rate and if forced to do so would again find itself in default. The matter reached a deadlock and it appeared that no agreement could be reached. At this point Charles M. Johnson, as State Treasurer and Chairman of the Local Government Commission, stepped into the negotiations and by his counsel and insistence the bondholders agreed to accept a uniform interest rate of 4¾%, requiring a total of $38,712.50 per year to meet the annual interest charge. This meant an annual saving of $5,135.00 per year to the taxpayers of Macon County.

These refunding bonds had a uniform term of thirty years. Thus, an annual saving of $5,135.00 over a period of thirty years saved the taxpayers of Macon County a total of $154,050.00. This saving was made by the effort, interest and financial statesmanship of Charles M. Johnson, who alone is directly responsible for this service.
