

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

MRS. WATSON ENTERTAINS TEACHERS AT LUNCHEON

Repeating her courtesy of last year, Mrs. W. L. Watson entertained the teachers of Highlands school with a luncheon at Linda's on the last day of school. In addition to the teachers, the courtesy included Mrs. O. F. Summer and Mrs. W. C. Newton.

Teachers present were Principal O. F. Summer, W. C. Newton, Mrs. and Mrs. R. B. DuPree, Mrs. Annie W. Pierson, Miss Nina Howard, Miss Veva Howard, Miss Lois Keener, Mrs. Onnie Cabe, Mrs. Frank Gunn, Mrs. Daisy Holden, and Miss Virginia Edwards.

APPLEYS TO SAIL JUNE 27 FOR TOUR OF EUROPE

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Appley and her daughter, Miss Mary Appley, will sail from New York June 27 on the "Queen Mary" for a trip to Europe, which will include England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland and France. The longer stop-overs will include five days in London, four in Rome, three in Nice and six in Paris.

Mrs. Appley and her daughter, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baty at "Cheonondah" for the past ten days, left Monday for a visit with the former's sister, Mrs. J. H. Noble, in Evanston, Ill., from which point they will fly to New York June 24. They expect to return from their European trip August 4 on the "Queen Elizabeth".

Personal Mention

Mrs. M. C. Reilly, her daughter, Mrs. Lucile Pennewill, the latter's sons, Bill and Chris Peanewill, of Pensacola, Fla., have opened their home, "Summer Hill", on the Walhalla road for the season. Mrs. Reilly, who came ahead of her family, was a guest at Tricemont Terrace for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Trowbridge, of Anderson, S. C., have announced the birth of a daughter, Sarah Patrick, June 3, at Anderson, S. C., Memorial hospital. Mrs. Trowbridge is the former Miss Betty King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. King, Sr., of Anderson and Highlands.

Mrs. George Nathan and Mrs. H. Wesley, of Miami, Fla., who were guests of Mrs. F. L. Olds for a few days the past week, en route to Washington, D. C., expressed themselves as being delighted with the wildflowers, which are at their best now, as well as with the beauties of the Highlands section in general.

Mrs. Doyle Burgess was refreshment hostess at a meeting of the Satulah club Friday afternoon at the club rooms adjoining the library.

Miss Angela Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson, student at Erskine college, Due West, S. C., has returned home for the summer vacation.

Major-General and Mrs. Albert E. Brown recently returned from Korea, where Gen. Brown has been stationed for the past two years, and arrived in Highlands Saturday afternoon for a six weeks' visit with Mrs. John Stephen Sewell. Mrs. Brown is a niece of the late Col Sewell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Waters, of Havana, Cuba, and their grandson, Douglas Newport, are at "Hava-Rest", the Waters' summer home on Cullasaja Drive.

Miss Maxie Wright, daughter of Mrs. Helen Wilson, of Highlands, who was graduated with honors at Western Carolina Teachers college May 31, has been spending the past ten days with her room-mate, Miss Loeie Alley, at Virginia Beach. Miss Wright is expected to return home this week-end.

Miss Mildred Crunkleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crunkleton, student at Berea college, Berea, Ky., has returned to her home here for the summer vacation.

Visiting Miss Thelma Howell at Willow Creek lodge for the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O'Connor and Miss Florence Beasley, of Atlanta.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard O'Dell and children, and Verne Ahlberg, of the Evansville college faculty, Evansville, Ind., are visiting Mrs. and Mrs. Jack H. Wilcox and family at Billy Cabin farm.

Miss Frances Crunkleton, who was graduated last week from Lees-McRae college, Banner Elk, was among those making the dean's list for the last quarter.

Dr. Eugene P. Odum, of the University of Georgia, Athens, and H. V. Autry, University of

Highlands Graduates Get Diplomas At Impressive Commencement Program

From a stage beautifully decorated with azaleas and other wildflowers, carrying out the class colors of forest green and gold, members of the Highlands High school graduating class received their diplomas in final exercises last Thursday night in the high school auditorium.

The invocation was by the Rev. R. B. DuPree. Juanita Alley gave the salutatory address, and Victory Wood the class history. The class prophecy was read by Anne Anderson, and the class will by Annie Nix. Dolly McCall gave the valedictory. Accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. B. DuPree, the glee club sang two selections.

T. C. Mercer, registrar of Bob Jones university, Greenville, S. C., delivered the address to the graduating class. Speaking on how to meet and solve life's problems, Mr. Mercer emphasized the necessity of character and moral training. His talk was divided into four sections: first, finding the work in which one is interested and doing it to the best of his ability under pleasant circumstances; second, the importance of a successful marriage; third, Christian principles; and fourth, the solving of world problems in connection with scientific discoveries.

The Rev. R. B. DuPree, science teacher and basketball coach, presented block "H" letters to 24 students, the single letters representing 100 points or more, and with a star, 200 or more points, for activities in the glee club, dramatics, athletics, student council, journalism, and scholastic standing. Students receiving the H's were:

Ninth grade, Dolores Vinson, Elizabeth Newton, Charles Crunkleton, Harry Holt, Jr., Kathleen Potts, Thelma Beale.

Tenth grade, L. C. Howard, Mary Deas Anderson, Joyce Burnette, Isabel Hall, Patsy Hays, Mack Hopper, with star; Martha Holt, with star; and Albert Edwards.

Eleventh grade, Buddy Houston, with star; Johnny Crunkleton; Paul Price, with star; Arnold Keener, with star; Evelyn Lewis; Ray Norton, with star; and Duane Edwards.

Principal O. F. Summer made the following medal awards:

Valedictory medal, Dolly McCall; salutatory medal, Juanita Alley; student council, Laverne Vinson; journalism, Paul Price; citizenship, Arnold Keener; dramatics, Elizabeth Newton; American history, elementary school, Myrna Holt; American history, high school, Dolly McCall. The two history medals were given by Spruce Camp No. 885, Woodmen of the World, Dillard, Ga.

County Superintendent Guy L. Houk made a short talk to the graduating class and presented diplomas to Dolly McCall, Juanita Alley, Gladys Neely, Annie Nix, Anne Anderson, Dorylas Picklesimer, Sue Hicks and Victory Wood.

Class mascots, Lina Potts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Potts, and Jerry Baty, son of Georgia student, have arrived for the summer, the former to continue his study of the birds of this section, and the latter his study of mammals. They are residing at Willow Creek lodge on Fifth street with a number of other scientists.

Miss Emily Hector, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hector, of Highlands, and Miami, and Mrs. H. Dale Miller, of Miami, left New York Sunday by plane for a European trip of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wright of Greenwood, S. C., and their two children, Linda and Barbara, were week-end guests of Mr. Wright's mother, Mrs. Helen Wilson and family.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bryson over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrell and son, Linwood, of Goldsboro.

Mrs. D. B. Pastell left Sunday to attend summer school at Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee, for the next six weeks.

Mrs. Horace Childs and her two children, Hiram and Brooks, of Sarasota, Fla., are expected to arrive this week to spend the summer with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Russell, of Orlando, Fla., have opened their summer home here on Mirror Lake for the season.

Mrs. A. D. Little left Tuesday for Richmond, Ind. She will be joined by Arthur D. Little, Jr., and family in Richmond, and from there they will go on to Seattle, Wash., where Arthur and Sarah will attend summer school.

Of interest to Highlands is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Caroline Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen, of Atlantic Beach, Fla., to Frank Edwards of Atlanta, the wedding to take place June 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Baty, wore caps and gowns, duplicates of those worn by the seniors, and were presented by Mr. Houk with make-believe diplomas, in red bindings.

Mrs. Pierson Is Crowned 'Lovely Lady' Of School

In recognition of Mrs. Pierson's 42 years, a special program was given in her honor by Highlands school on the closing day of school last Thursday, when she was crowned "The Lovely Lady" by her granddaughter, Christine Crunkleton.

The presentation of a "pot of gold" followed the crowning. The cash gift was contributed by the faculty, the students of the school, former students, and others in the community as a token of appreciation for Mrs. Pierson's school work.

After a short talk on her work and what it had meant to the school throughout the years, O. F. Summer, school principal, presented the gift to Mrs. Pierson in a golden pottery bowl, the students naming it the "pot of gold."
