MISS KATHERINE LONG TO WED VICTOR PERRY
Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Wesley Long, of Franklin, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Ida Katherine Long, to Victor Horn Perry, son of Mrs. J. E. Perry, Sr., of Franklin, and of the late Mr. Perry. The wedding will take place August 23 at the Franklin Methodist church.

Miss Long is a graduate of the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina. For the past two years she has been a member of the faculty of the Franklin High school.

Mr. Perry served in the army air corps during World War 2 and is now a student in the school of pharmacy at the University of North Carolina. He is a member of the Chi Phi fraternity.

The date of the wedding was announced Wednesday afternoon at a dessert bridge and tea given by Mrs. J. N. Dowdle, cousin of the bride-to-be.

Mrs. Dowdle's home was attractively decorated throughout with white gladioli and sweet peas. Five tables of bridge were in play, and there were 30 tea guests.

A salad course was served by the hostess.

MRS. JONES' EXPRESSION PUPILS GIVE RECITAL

Mrs. R. S. Jones presented her expression pupils in recital Monday evening at the Slagle Memorial.

The pupils ranging in age from 5 to 16, gave a varied program of readings, including both serious and amusing numbers. About midway of the program, a Dutch dance, in costume, was presented.

The program follows:

"The Fiddle Told", by Elizabeth Jones; "The Usual Way", by Freda Siler, accompanied at the piano by Edith Piemmons; "The Din of the Carpenter Man", Margaret Jones; "How the LaRue Stakes Were Lost", Carolyn Nothstein; "The Moo Cow Moo", Linda Shope; "When the Jimsons Have Cold Meat", Richard Jones, Jr.; "What Jackie Stoke", Brenda Cunningham; A Dutch Dance, executed in costume by Margaret Jones and Nancy Siler, accompanied at the piano by Freda Siler; "Laughter of Leen", Julia Hunnicutt; "Penrod's Letter", Elizabeth Ann Phillips; and "Little Bo Peep and Little Boy Blue" (in costume), Brenda Cunningham and Linda Shope.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Jones, assisted by older pupils, served refreshments to the guests.

Girl Scout Troop Nets $35 On Benefit Dance

The Senior Girl Scout troop netted approximately $35 on the benefit square dance the troop sponsored at the Slagle Memorial last Saturday night. Music was furnished by a string band of local musicians, and Mrs. Robert Porter and Mrs. Tom Phillips, troop leader and assistant leader, respectively, served as chaperones. Elizabeth Jones, president of the troop, presented prizes.

The supply of DDT is now reported plentiful in all forms.

APPRECIATION

We would like to express our appreciation to the many friends and relatives for the kindness shown, and the beautiful floral offerings, during our recent bereavement.

EXTREMELY NICE

Mother: "I hope your roommate at the training school is a nice boy, Robert."
Robert: "Judge for yourself, mother. The other night he barked his shins on a chair in the dark, and I heard him say, 'Oh, the perversity of inanimate objects!'"
