MRS. H. G. STORY

ROBERT ZAHNER WEDS NEW ORLEANS GIRL

The marriage of Miss Jane Overton Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bland Logan, of New Orleans, to Robert Zahner, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon B. Zahner, of Highlands, took place in the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church in New Orleans Saturday evening, June 19, at 7 o'clock, with the Rev. William S. Turner, rector of the church, officiating.

The bride entered the chapel with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a summery gown of white voile over white bridal satin, trimmed in filmy white lace used by her mother, the former Miss Regina Buck Walshe, at her wedding, and by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. George Campbell Walshe, at her marriage. The very full skirt was edged with the lace and fell into a long train. The bodice of the gown was trimmed in bands of the lace which also formed the short sleeves. Her veil of illusion was bordered with heirloom Rose Pointe lace, held in place by a cap effect of the Rose Pointe caught at the sides by lilies of the valley. Her bridal flowers were lilies of the valley arranged in a small round bouquet.

Miss Catherine Dicks, the bride's only attendant, wore a dress of pale green organdy trimmed with tiny green organdy ruffles, and carried a bouquet of pale-yellow roses and daisies.

Mr. Zahner had as his best man his brother, Kenyon B. Zahner, Jr., Usners were Law Lamar Agar, of Chapel Hill, John C. Henley, III, of Birmingham, Richard Bland Logan, Jr., of Charleston, Mo., and Campbell W. Logan.

After a wedding trip to the Gulf coast, Mr. and Mrs. Zahner will be at home in Highlands until the re-opening of Duke university this fall, where Mr. Zahner will continue his studies for his master's degree, and Mrs. Zahner will be a senior.

MISS VIRGINIA BURNETTE MARRIES JOSEPH PETREE

Miss Virginia Burnette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burnette, of Highlands, was married to Joseph Petree, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Petree, of Greensboro, Friday evening June 18 at 6 o'clock in the Highlands Baptist church.

The vows were spoken by candlelight before an altar banked with greenery interspersed with white iris. Several baskets of iris were placed around the altar. The Rev. Mitchell Faulkner, pastor of the Methodist church in Greensboro, N. C., read the vows, using the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. W. A. Hays, organist, and Miss Elizabeth Newton sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life", and "Because". The couple entered the church to the strains of the Wedding March from "Lohengrin". The bride wore a suit of white gabardine with white accessories and carried an arm bouquet of white iris.

Mrs. Burnette, mother of the bride, wore a light pink summer dress of floral print, with black accessories, and a corsage of white iris. Mrs. Petree, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue with white accessories, and a corsage of white iris.

The bride is a graduate of Highlands High school, Brevard college, and Woman's college of the University of North Carolina, and taught in the Pineville high school last year. The bridegroom is a graduate of Greensboro high school, Brevard college and Duke university. He attended Yale university last year.

After a wedding trip through the Smokies and other points of interest in Western North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Petree left for Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., where Mr. Petree is taking special work.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McJunkin and daughter, Jerry Lee, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Faulkner, of Pineville, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woodruff, of Alfred, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, of Robbinsville, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Petree, of Sanford, and Mrs. J. W. Petree and Miss Doris Petree of Greensboro.

New Highlands Cafe Will Be Opened This Week-End By Rideout

Harold Rideout will open a cafe this week-end in the former Talley & Burnette Main street store building, more recently occupied by the Holt Furniture company. Building alterations and redecorating have been under way at the new cafe for the past two weeks.

Mr. Rideout, who was at one time connected with the Highlands post office, spent the past winter in Washington, D. C., where he was in the cafe business.

Hold Christening Rite For Pearson's Infant

William Howard Pearson, 10 week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pearson, was christened in a service Friday afternoon at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation by the rector, the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan.

The baby's godfathers are uncles, Howard L. Pearson and William C. Nall, for whom he is named. His godmother is Miss Frances Felchner. Mrs. A. Rockwell Nall, of Carabelle, Fla., the child's paternal grandmother, was present for the service.

Ennery Named

As Summer Director Of Laboratory

B. E. Fernow, president of the Highlands Museum and Biological laboratory, has announced the appointment of Lloyd Ennery, Jr., of the biology department of Vanderbilt university, as summer director. The museum will open today (July 1).

President Fernow has also announced the appointment of Mrs. Elliot Caziarc as museum receptionist for the summer. Mrs. Caziarc's appointment to this position will relieve Mr. Ennery to devote his time to building up the collections, teaching children's classes, and other museum activities, the president said.

During Mr. Ennery's two months' stay here he will be a guest at Highlands inn.
