MISS WALKER BECOMES BRIDE OF CLARENCE HENRY
The First Baptist church of Elkin was the scene of the wedding of Miss Dorothy Mae Walker, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Franklin Walker, of Elkin, to Clarence Edwin Henry, of Franklin, son of Mrs. John B. Henry, of Franklin, and of the late Mr. Henry, which was solemnized in a ceremony at 1:30 p. m. June 30.

The Rev. J. Stephen Morrissett, professor at Gardner-Webb college, Boiling Springs, and former pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ritual of the Baptist church. He was assisted by the Rev. Howard J. Ford, pastor of the First Baptist church, Elkin.

A prelude of wedding music was presented, and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The vows were spoken before the altar, arranged with native greenery and Oregon fern, interspersed with floor baskets of white gladioli. The nuptial setting was softly lighted with tapers in seven-branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candlelight satin fashioned with a scalloped-neckline, long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands, and fitted scalloped bodice, joined to a full skirt which extended into a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion cascaded from a circlet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and tuberoses, centered with a white purple-throated orchid. Her only ornament was a heirloom diamond and pearl lavalier.

Mrs. Robert W. Turner, of Waynesville, was matron of honor and her sister's only attendant. She wore a rose crepe gown styled with a scalloped neckline with a yoke of lace, bandeau of plaited maline. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of mixed Summer flowers.

Frank L. Henry, Jr., of Franklin, acted as best man for his cousin. Ushers were Dr. Frank H. Walker, of Yadkinville, brother of the bride, and Dr. Robert A. H. Henry, of Waynesville. Her headdress was a matching ert W. Turner, of Waynesville, brother-in-law of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Gilvin Roth Y. M. C. A. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mrs. John B. Henry, the bridal couple and Mrs. Robert W. Turner.

After the reception the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip to Northern points.

Mrs. Henry, a graduate of Elkin High school, attended Flora MacDonald college, Red Springs, and was graduated from Westminster Choir college, Princeton, N. J., where she received a B. M. degree in voice this spring. After September 1, she will assume duties as minister of music at the First Baptist church in Franklin.

Mr. Henry attended Brevard college and is a veteran of World II, having served three years in the Marine corps, 16 months of which was spent in the Pacific. He is co-owner of Auto Parts and Equipment company, Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry will be at home in Franklin.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. O. C. Bryant, Miss Frances Baumgarner, Frank L. Henry, Jr., and Mrs. J. B. Henry, all of Franklin.

THE POLITICIAN

The politician is my shepherd; I shall not want, for any good things during the campaign. He leadest me into the saicon for my vote's sake; he fuleth my pocket with good cigars, my glass of beer runneth over. Yea, though I walk through the wind and the rain to vote for him, and shout myself hoarse, when he is elected, straightway he forgetteth me. And io, when I meet him in his own office he knoweth me not. Surely, the wool hath been pulled over mine eyes all the days of my life.
