

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

100 ATTEND RECEPTION TEA FOR MUSEUM HEAD

Approximately one hundred persons attended the Highlands Museum tea and reception Friday afternoon, given in honor of Lloyd C. Emery, the new summer director.

Mrs. Allan Brown, tea chairman, was assisted in serving and entertaining by Mrs. Clark Foreman, Mrs. J. M. Valentine and Mrs. Elliott Caziarc.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was the showing of moths and butterflies collected in the Highlands area last week by John Duane, who is visiting his aunts, the Misses Marguerite and Clarissa Ravenel.

Specimens collected in New York by Mr. Duane, which were mounted in plastic, also were on display.

Personal Mention

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Saussy at "Highfield" included Mr. and Mrs. Courtenay Bateman, and Courtenay Bateman, Jr., of Columbia, S. C., Dalton Stokes, Thurman Council and Bill Hicks, of Florence, S. C., and Sgt. Kenneth Hunt, of Shaw Air Base, Sumter, S. C., and Plymouth, England.

Mrs. H. D. Randall has as her guests at "Billy Cabin" Mrs. J. S. Daniel of New York City, and Mrs. M. M. Bradley, of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith and daughter, Miss Joan Smith, of Palm Beach, Fla., are at their summer home on Satulah mountain.

Miss Marguerite Richert, of the nursing staff of the Atlanta army hospital returned home Tuesday, following a visit here with her aunt, Mrs. Grover D. Edwards, and family.

Mrs. E. L. Billstein, of Morristown, N. J., arrived Tuesday to spend the remainder of the season at her summer home on East Main street. Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Kemp, of Lake Wales, Fla., who are spending some time at the Billstein cottage, had as their recent guests Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kennedy, of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. T. M. Langston, of Lake Wales.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cole, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. G. C. Gilder, of Montgomery, arrived Saturday for a visit with Miss Sara Gilder at her Oak Street apartment.

NEXT THEATRE PRODUCTION IS SET FOR AUG. 2

'The Corn Is Green' To Be Presented By Players

Ralph Mowbray, president of the Highlands Community theatre, this week announced that the second production by the Community theatre group, will be "The Corn Is Green", to be presented Monday, August 2, at the Highlands School theatre.

Director Fred Allen reported that the cast has been selected and that rehearsals are in progress. With the exception of one person, he said, the cast is composed of year-round Highlands residents, including the following: Bob Dupree, Martha Cobb, Bobby Potts, Peggy Potts, Charles J. Wick, Herbert Paul, Ginger Brockway, Maxine Wright, Virginia Wilcox, Arnold Keener, Sara Guilder, Collin Wilcox, Jeremy Wilcox, Alfreed Randall, and Douglass Talley.

Benefit Golf Match Tickets Are Now On Sale In Highlands

Tickets to the golf match, a benefit for the Highlands Community hospital, to be played by Bobby Jones and Louise Suggs versus Dick Garlington and Dorothy Kirby, are on sale at six Highlands hotels and at the Highlands Country club, it was announced by Robert Hager, ticket chairman.

Serving with Mr. Hager as a ticket sales committee are Miss Winifried Eskridge, Highlands chairman, and Mrs. M. Brown, Edmondson and Mrs. Ryman, in the Highlands Country club area.

Miss Eileen Turner, of Kosciusko, Miss., is expected to arrive this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baty at "Cheonondah." Recent guests of the Baty's where Miss Ellen Kroneberger, Miss Anne McCauley, Mrs. Mary Kershaw and Mrs. Sara Paisley, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Arthur Pike Makes His First Visit To Highlands Since '94

Arthur B. Pike, of Bridgeport, Conn., visited Highlands last week for the first time since 1894. With Mr. Pike were his son Arthur, Jr., and Miss Minnie Pike. They were guests of Miss Eva G. Cleaveland at her cottage on Fourth street during their short stay here. En route to Highlands, the Pikes visited Mrs. Henry D. West in Franklin.

According to Mr. Pike, the Highlands of today could not have been visualized from the vantage point of the early 1890's.

Valentine To Show His Flower Pictures In Color

Dr. Manson Valentine will show his flower pictures in color at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening of next week at the Highlands Museum, it has been announced. The showing is open to all who care to see the pictures.

Other events scheduled at the museum include the showing of nature movies by the Forest Service each Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for children's classes, and each Thursday night at 8:30 for adults.

House and garden tours similar to those of last year are planned by the museum for July 23 and August 20, B. E. Fernow, president of the Highlands Museum and Biological laboratory, has announced.

Aunt Of Misses Elliott Dies In Sewanee, Tenn.

Funeral services for Miss Marie Huger, who died Friday morning in her ninetieth year, were held Sunday afternoon in Sewanee, Tenn. Interment was in the family burial ground in Sewanee. Miss Huger was the aunt of Miss Charlotte B. Elliott and Miss Esther Elliott, of Highlands.

Davis To Observe His 84th Birthday At Camp Meeting

W. S. Davis is planning to celebrate his eighty-fourth birthday anniversary today (Thursday), by attending camp meeting in Corbin, Ky. Making the trip with Mr. Davis will be his daughters, Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, of East Point, Ga., and Mrs. A. D. Bolton and Mr. Bolton, of Commerce, Ga.

Meeting Mr. Davis in Corbin will be another daughter, Mrs. Alexander Kenner and her husband, the Rev. Mr. Kenner, of Wilmore, Ky., and a son, Dr. Warner P. Davis, and Mrs. Davis, of Lexington, Ky. A birthday supper has been planned for Mr. Davis on his arrival in Corbin this evening.

Farnum To Preach Sunday At Episcopal

The Rev. Arthur W. Farnum, of Asheville, will be guest minister at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service, according to an announcement made by the rector, the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan. Through the remainder of July and August, services will be held at this church each Sunday morning at 11.

Three Churches Holding Vacation Bible School

The vacation Bible school being held jointly by the Methodist, Episcopal, and Presbyterian churches got off to a good start Monday morning at the Presbyterian church, and will continue for ten days.

SPECIAL!
Champion Fibre Y. M. C. A.
SQUARE DANCE TEAM
Featuring the
CARPENTER STRING BAND
At
HELEN'S BARN
Highlands, N. C.
8:30 p. m., Friday, July 23
18 Dancers . . . 7-Piece Band
Exhibition Dances and Playing
★
Carpenter's String Band was first place prize winner of the Asheville Folk Festival in 1945, 1946, and 1947.

To be a success as a farmer . . .
SOW PLENTY OF GRASS AND CLOVER SEEDS FOR MAKING HAY AND PASTURE.
Besides added dollars in your pocket this will also keep your soil from washing away when the heavy rains come.
We have the seeds. Best quality, priced right. Also Bean seeds for that late planting you were thinking about.
TALLEY & BURNETTE
HIGHLANDS, N. C.

Macon Dry Cleaners
Prompt Efficient Work
FOR PICK UP SERVICE
Phone 270

DANCE AT HELEN'S BARN
Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Nights
Open 8:30 to 12:00 o'clock

NOTICE TO ALL FARMERS
WE WILL BUY AT TOP PRICES
SNAP BEANS
POLE BEANS
AND OTHER TRUCK CROPS
CABBAGE
POTATOES

Temporarily located in Brown and Carson Warehouse until our new building behind Dillard Builders Store is completed.

RABUN PRODUCE COMPANY
Henry Dillard, Manager
PHONE 273-J
FRANKLIN, NORTH CAROLINA