MRS. CRUNKLETON OBSERVES 76TH BIRTHDAY WITH DINNER
Mrs. T. B. Crunkleton celebrated her 76th birthday anniversary with a family dinner Sunday at her home on the Dillard road.

Five children, with their families, including 14 grandchildren, enjoyed the day with Mrs. Crunkleton. They were Mr. and Mrs. Earle Crunkleton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crunkleton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Crunkleton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howard and family, and Mrs. Walter Taylor and family.

Two close friends, Miss Sadie Taylor and Miss Sadie Gorey, of New York City, were among the dinner guests. A number of other friends also called during the afternoon.

PLAN ANNUAL BRIDGE-TEA AS LABORATORY BENEFIT

The annual bridge-tea for the benefit of the Highlands Museum and Biological laboratory again will be held at "Wolf Ridge", the summer home of Miss Marguerite Ravenel and Miss Clare Ravenel. The date this year is July 27, at 3 o'clock.

Tables may be reserved by the phoning Miss Marguerite Ravenel or Mrs. Robert Hager, although this was said not to be necessary. Players can help by bringing cards. Admission will be one dollar per person. Refreshments will be served and prizes awarded. Other games will be arranged for those who do not play bridge, it was said.

SATULAH CLUB TO HOLD BENEFIT BRIDGE PARTY

The Highlands Satulah club will sponsor a bridge party in the library annex Wednesday afternoon of next week, from 3 to 5 o'clock, for the benefit of the Highlands Community hospital. Admission will be 50 cents. Mrs. J. A. Hines, chairman of arrangements, asks that players bring cards.

AUXILIARY PLANS BAZAAR NEXT FRIDAY AT MANOR

The Woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation will hold a bazaar Friday of next week at Highlands manor, it has been announced by Miss Rebecca Nail, auxiliary president. The hours will be 11 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. Assisting committees will be announced next week.

Personal Mention

Charles Crunkleton is spending the summer in New York City and is working with his uncle, Edward Schme, in his confectionery shop.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lex Ramey, July 16, a daughter, Virginia Lavena, at their home in Highlands.

Mrs. Ruby Rollins, of Umatilla, Fla., will return home Saturday, following a three weeks' visit here with Mrs. A. L. Westbrook. Mrs. Rollins and Mrs. Westbrook were schoolmates and this is their first visit together in 37 years.

C. Richardson, of Charlotte, arrived Friday for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Root. Accompanying Mrs. Richardson to Highlands were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Farr, and their two sons, who returned to Charlotte Sunday.

Mrs. R. K. Ledford and baby daughter, Vivian, of Richmond, Va., arrived Friday for a visit with Mrs. Ledford's mother, Mrs. Thomas Parker, and Mr. Parker, and with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack A. Pierson. Mrs. Ledford is the former Miss Margaret Neely.

Mrs. Logan H. Bagby and her daughter, Sally, of Houston, Texas, arrived Sunday for a week's visit with Mrs. Bagby's mother, Mrs. John T. Rowe, at

GARDEN TOUR TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Four Of Highlands' Finest Homes To Be Visited

A garden tour will be sponsored tomorrow (Friday) by the Highlands Museum and Biological laboratory.

The tour, to be held from 2 to 5 p. m., will enable those who enjoy beautiful gardens and attractive homes to see some of Highlands' finest.

A different itinerary from that followed last year is planned. The places to be visited this year will be the Ravenel home on Fodderstack mountain, the Sloan place on Satulah, the Yetter place on the Wampanoac road, and Mrs. Clark Howells on the golf course. Each of these homes has unique features that appeal to lover of beauty, and each has its individual pin's not possessed by another.

The tour will start from the porch of the Highlands inn, where tickets may be purchased at $1 for adults, or 50 cents for children under 12. Those who have cars are requested to drive them. Cars will be donated to transport those who are here without cars.

Tickets will also be available at the points of call for those who might find this more convenient.

Mrs. Jack Brockway Named On Board Of Highlands Theatre

Mrs. Jack W. Brockway was elected to the board of directors of the Highlands Community Theatre at a meeting held Wednesday of last week in the rehearsal room. Mrs. Brockway succeeds Arthur Little, who could not be here this season. At this meeting Bud Thompson's appointment by the board as a temporary member for August was announced. He takes Mrs. Thomas K. FitzPatrick's place during her absence.

New active members of the Theatre, it was announced, in-

BEG YOUR PARDON

The Press and Maconian erroneously reported, in its issue of July 8, that Dr. William A. Matthews was elected president of the Highlands Community hospital. The hospital organization has no president. Dr. Matthews was elected as one of 10 members of the board of trustees, of which Stacey C. Russell was chosen chairman.

Mrs. J. Ben Taylor, the former Miss Mattie Potts, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Potts, and will be joined here at an early date by Mr. Taylor or his two weeks' vacation.

Miss Helen Augur, of New York City, is the guest of Mrs. Watson Barrett, also of New York, who is spending some time at her summer home on Satulah mountain.

Miss Barbara Zoellner, student at Duke university, is spending a two weeks' vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Zoellner.

Miss Margaret Zoellner returned to Highlands Tuesday after a month's visit at Crystal River, Fla., with her brother, Malcolm Zoellner, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Wright and two sons, of Waldron, Ark., are visiting Mr. Wright's mother, Mrs. Helen Wilson, and family.

Impromptu Street Dance Popular

A street dance last Thursday night was a part of the week's activities for the benefit of the Highlands Community hospital.

The dance was arranged on the spur of the moment, when Thursday promised fair weather, and proved a pleasant occasion for those who like to dance, as well as for the fair-sized crowd that looked on.

Free music was furnished by Floyd Lamb, J. C. Hicks, Glenn Wilson, Bidd Burton and Willard Crisp. The proceeds from the dance were used for increasing the building fund.

Martha Holt

Wins First Prize In Hospital Campaign

Martha Holt chalked up the largest total in the Highlands Community hospital fund-raising contest, which closed Saturday afternoon, and was awarded her choice of sweaters at The Mountain Gift Shop in Cashiers, given by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conkle, as a first prize.

Second place in the contest went to Isabel Hall, who was given a table lamp as second prize by Mrs. W. E. McGuire of the Country Mouse Gift Shop.
