MISS VIRGINIA BRYANT WEDS DONALD P. JONES

Miss Virginia Bryant became the bride of Donald Porter Jones in a ceremony solemnized at the First Baptist church here Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Charles E. Parker, of that church, the couple's pastor, officiated, using the single ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bryant, of Franklin, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones, also of Franklin.

White gladioluses and greenery were used in decorating the church, which was lit by cathedral tapers in seven-branched candelabra. Candles, surrounded by greenery, also were used in the windows.

The program of nuptial music consisted of organ solos, "Indian Love Call", by Rudolph Friml, and "Liebestraum", by Liszt, played by Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, and two vocal selections—"At Dawning", by Cadman, and "I Love Thee", by Grieg—by Richard Sloan.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church unattended. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride was attired in a street-length dress of white silk brought from China by the bridegroom. The dress was made with a fitted bodice, hand-tucked yoke, long fitted sleeves and a full gored skirt. Her picture hat was of hand-crocheted Corde, trimmed with ostrich plume tips and a short white silk chiffon veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white satin streamers and tuberoses.

Ushers were William Pershing Bryant, brother of the bride, and Oscar James Ledford, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a black dress, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The mother of the groom was dressed in a black suit, and her flowers were gardenias.

Following the ceremony, the couple left by motor on a wedding trip. For traveling, the bride changed to a tailored yellow Irish linen suit with matching accessories. She wore the orchid, detached from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Jones, who served as "Miss Macon County" at the recent coronation ball of the Rhododendron Brigade of Guards in Asheville, is a graduate of the Franklin High school and commercial school. She has held several secretarial positions here, having been employed by Duncan Motor company at the time of her marriage.

Mr. Jones is a graduate of the Franklin High school and was graduated from the U. S. Merchant Marine academy at Kings Point, N. Y., with the rating of ensign. Since then he has been employed as engineer by various steamship companies.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon Hyde, of Maryville, Tenn.; Mrs. R. C. Bumgarner, of Whittier; Mrs. William Webb, of Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Jane Holtzclaw, of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt Dryman, of Toccoa, Ga.; Miss Wanda Dryman, of Toccoa, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Nick Holmes, of Toccoa, Ga.; Mrs. F. B. Jones, of Sylva, Ray Jones, of Sylva, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mehaffey, of Andrews, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Jones, of Andrews.

CAKE CUTTING HELD FOR WEDDING PARTY

Mrs. O. C. Bryant entertained with a cake cutting for Miss Virginia Bryant and Donald P. Jones Friday evening of last week, on the eve of their wedding, at Mrs. Bryant's home in the Orlando apartments.

The guests included the bridal couple, members of their immediate families, and members of the wedding party.

The apartment was decorated with mixed flowers, and the tea table was covered with a lace cloth. At one end of the table was the three-tiered wedding cake, and at the other the silver punch bowl surrounded by white gladioluses. The table was centered by a silver bowl of roses and white lighted tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Fred Grant, sister of the bride, served the cake, and Miss Jane Holtzclaw, of Charlotte, Mrs. Grover Jamison, Jr., and Mrs. Louise Gray served the punch.

MISS VIRGINIA BRYANT HONORED WITH SHOWER

Miss Virginia Bryant, whose marriage to Donald P. Jones was a social event of Saturday evening, was honored at a shower at the Slagle Memorial Tuesday evening of last week.

The shower was given by Mrs. O. C. Bryant and Mrs. Lyman Higdon, with Mrs. Louise Gray,

Mrs. Joe Lassiter, Mrs. Bill Bryson, Mrs. Howard Price, Mrs. Lester Arnold, Mrs. Edgar Angel, and Mrs. Fred Grant as co-hostesses.

A color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Mixed garden flowers were used throughout the hall, and on the tea table, which was covered with an imported lace cloth, was a three-tiered cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Silver bowls contained summer flowers, and silver candelabra added a festive note to the table.

During the evening, Mrs. Clarence Henry sang several numbers, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Henry W. Cabe. The hostesses served punch and cake, nuts, and mints.

The honoree received many attractive gifts from the approximately 150 guests who called during the evening.

2 METHODIST GROUPS PLAN ALL-DAY OUTING

The Woman's Society of Christian Service and the F. S. Johnston Bible class, of the Franklin Methodist church, will hold an all-day picnic today (Thursday) at Arrowood Glade. Since the membership of the two organizations is identical, they decided to make the outing a joint affair.

The group will meet at the church at 10 o'clock, and go from there to Arrowood.

In the event of rain, the all-day meeting will be held at the church.

SLOAN RELATIVES HOLD PICNIC FOR GUESTS

Members of the Sloan family connection entertained with a picnic at the home of J. S. Sloan Saturday evening.

The event was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Daniels, Miss Hope Daniels, and Mr. and Mrs. James R. Daniels, all of New York; the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, his daughter, Mrs. Donald W. McLean, of Greensboro, his sister, Mrs. Esther Freas, and his niece, Miss Frances Barr; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cook, and Miss Harriette Kinnebrew.

Between 25 and 30 persons enjoyed the dinner, which, due to the weather, was served in the Sloan living and dining rooms, and a social evening.
