

Farm and Home Week Program Is Canceled On Account Of Polio

Farm and Home week, annual state-wide gathering of farmers and farm women which had been scheduled on the State college campus from August 30 to September 3, will not be held in 1948. It has been announced by Dr. L. O. Schaub, director of the North Carolina Extension service.

Decision to postpone the event until the summer of 1949 was due to the polio situation.

Publications Win Top Honors Third Time

Entries from the division of agricultural publications at North Carolina State college won top honors in national competition sponsored by the American Association of Agricultural College Editors at the association's annual convention in Pullman, Washington, last week.

Eleven of the State college entries scored "excellent", and four others rated "good." The University of Illinois, closest runner-up, had seven marked "excellent" and 12 graded "good."

It was the third successive year that the State College division, headed by Agricultural Editor Frank H. Jeter, has led the nation in the quality and quantity of its radio and press service and its agricultural publications.

TEN LITTLE AUTOS

Ten little autos, road and weather fine;
One hit a culvert, then there were nine.
Nine little autos, one a little late;
Driver struck a railroad train—then there were eight.
Eight little autos—but one went to heaven;
Running through a stop light—then there were seven.
Seven little autos speeding through the sticks;
One skidded off the road, then there were six.
Six little autos until one took a dive
Through an open drawbridge—then there were five.
Five little autos, one with rattling door;
Driver tried to shut it—then there were four.
Four little autos, one climbed a tree;

But didn't do it very well, so that left only three.
Three little autos, one driver was a "stew";
Loaded up on highballs—that left only two.
Two little autos, tried to beat the gun;
When the warning signal flashed—then there was one.
One little auto, around the corner tore;
Hit a truck; that all there is; there ain't any more."
