Macon Youth To Start Registering August 30

shall be registered on Friday, September 10, or Saturday, September 11.

Persons born in the year 1928 shall be registered on Monday, September 13, or Tuesday, September 14.

Persons born in the year 1929 principal: shall be registered on Wednesday, September 15, or Thursday, Katherine O'Neil, Miss Annie September 16.

Persons born in the year 1930 before September 19, 1930, shall be registered on Friday, September 17, or Saturday, September

Persons who were born on or after September 19, 1930, shall be registered on the day they become 18 or within five days thereafter.

Inductions are expected to start in November, and the first group to be called will be the 25-year olds, with younger men to come later. While the 18-year olds must register, no one under 19 is liable under the draft law.

About one out of every 150 of the 25-year olds will be inducted, draft officials have estimated. In this group, they believe there will be a heavy proportion of deferments because of service during the war, marital status, and for other reasons.

Service Moved Up

The Rev. Paul Nix, pastor of Highlands Baptist church, has announced that the night worship service on Sunday will be held at 7:10, instead of the regular hour, the change in time being made to give the congregation an opportunity to attend the play, "Heaven Bound", at the school theatre.

ists, Mr. Murray said his work has included answering inquiries about Franklin from persons interested in industry and in finding homesites. Several real estate deals handled here resulted from information provided insuiries by the chamber of commerce, it was added.

To finance this season's chamber activities, basiness abuses and individuals have contributed a total of $1,321.50 date, Frank B. Duncan, to said. Mr. Duncan treasurer. added that the solicitors for memberships were unable to see a number of tirms and persons who have contributed in past years, and asked that those who are not solicited either mail or bring their membership contributions to the chamb. booth.

comes along. Mr. Jones, a law-yer's clerk, played by Bob Du-Pree, had only a fanatic religious belief to comfort him before Miss Moffat started him teaching.

Miss Moffat's light-fingered housekeeper, Mrs. Watty, was well done by Estelle Brockway, whom no one could coax into caring for her daughter, Bessie Watty, played by Maxie Wright, Peggy Potts, as Sarah Pugh, was the postmistress who never and never wrote a letter because she was the only one who could read.

Young miners, in the support-ing cast, were Bobby Potts. Chuck Wick. Fred Allen, Craig Cranston and Douglas Talley as "Old Tom". Making up the school scene were Collin Wilcox, Jeremy Wilcox, Alfred Randall, and Sarah Gilder. The stunning stage backdrop, with its view of the mountains, was done by Jonathan Williams, and . the books that lined the shelves of the teacher's home were from the library of Mrs. John S. Sewell.

Director Fred Allen is to be congratulated on the scene of unity and sincerity he was able to infuse is the actors individually and as a whole, and those who had commented that this play was too difficult for the Highlands Theatre group were warm in their praise after the fall of the final curtain.

In every detail, lighting, staging, acting and directing, the performance provided a beautifully conceived, artistic experience for the community.
