

MISS ELIZABETH HORSLEY IS BRIDE OF J. A. PENA

Miss Frankie Elizabeth Horsley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Horsley, became the bride of Jose Angel Pena, son of Mrs. Maria P. Pena and of the late Adolfo Pena, of Brownsville, Texas, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church.

The Rev. Charles E. Parker officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Mountain greenery, baskets filled with white gladioli and white hydrangeas, and candelabra holding cathedral tapers were used on the altar.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, organist, playing Schubert's "Serenade" and "Traumerei", by Schumann. For the benediction, Mrs. Clarence Henry, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and net over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves ending in a point over the hand. The full skirt ended in a short train. Her veil of illusion, which fell from a coronet of lace, extended the full length of her dress. She carried a white prayer book show-ered with white ribbons and gardenias.

The maid of honor, Miss Helen Tucker, of Loulsburg, wore a gown of fuschia net over taffeta, made with fitted bodice and long sleeves. She wore a matching net headdress and carried a nosegay of white gladioli centered with yellow rosebuds. Howard Horsley, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were J. Horner Stockton and James W. Horsley.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon gown of grey crepe with blue accessories. Her corsage was of blue delphiniums.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Harrison avenue, to which only members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests, and a few close friends were invited.

The house throughout was decorated with bowls of pink and white flowers. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake encircled with pink and white flowers and flanked with white tapers. Miss Barbara Stockton, Miss Merrily Brooks, Mrs. J. W. Horsley, and Mrs. Horner Stockton assisted in serving. Mrs. J. C. Horsley kept the bride's book.

Following the reception, the bridal couple left for a short wedding trip. After September 1 they will reside at Wake Forest.

Mrs. Pena attended Brenau college, Gainesville, Ga., and was graduated from Wake Forest college, Wake Forest. For the past year she has been assistant to the editor of the Winston-Salem Journal-Sentinel.

Mr. Pena is a graduate of Brownsville Junior college, Brownsville, Texas. During the war he served in the Army Air corps for three years in the New Guinea area. He is now a student at Wake Forest college.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Johns, of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. George Care, of Williamston, N. C., Miss Ann Davison, of Hoiling Springs, N. C., and Mrs. J. A. Haire and Miss Josephine Haire, of Ahsokie, N. C.
