

MRS. H. G. STORY

MISS OLLIE MAE BURRELL WEDS LESLIE A. REESE

Miss Ollie Mae Burrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Burrell, of Lake Toxaway, was married to Leslie A. Reese, son of Mrs. Clyde Norton, of Highlands and Miami, Fla., in a ceremony Friday, August 13, in Clayton, Ga.

The bride was attired in a brown and pink summer wool suit, with brown and white accessories. Her corsage was of sweetheart rosebuds. Mrs. Reese taught in the Highlands school last year and at the time of her marriage was employed at the Highlands Country club.

Mr. Reese holds a position with the Coca-Cola Bottling company in Beaumont, Texas.

Accompanying the couple to Clayton for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Norton, Mayor and Mrs. James O. Beale, Mrs. J. H. Beale, Mrs. Robert Reese, Bidd E. Burton, Herbert Paul, R. L. Reese, Pete Baty, Doris and Budd Potts, and a number of the bride's friends from the Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese left immediately after the ceremony for Atlanta, going from there by plane to Beaumont, where they will make their home.

SILVER TEA OUTSTANDING SOCIAL EVENT

$145 Netted For Hudson Library; Many New Books Shelved

One of the outstanding social events of the season was the annual silver tea given by the Hudson Library association Tuesday of last week at the Library annex; the tea netted $145. Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss and Mrs. Robert Hiden were the committee on arrangements.

Miss Marguerite Ravenel presided at the tea-table, which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of summer flowers, flanked with silver candlesticks holding lighted tapers. Table flowers were arranged by Miss Clarissa Ravenel, and the flower decorations in the rooms by Mrs. Lewis Rice.

Repeat Play Of 'Heaven Bound' Draws Record Crowd

The repeat performance of "Heaven Bound", given Sunday night at the high school auditorium by the Negroes who are serving Highlands white families, drew a record-breaking crowd. The auditorium, which has a seating capacity of approximately 350 was packed to the limit, with a number of improvised seats used, and the four doorways filled with a standing audience.

The Rev. W. T. Medlin, pastor of Highlands Methodist church, gave the invocation, and the congregation was asked to join in singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus".

A short talk was made by George W. Woodruff, member of the board of trustees of the Highlands Community hospital. Following a collection taken for the hospital building fund, which amounted to $263.38, the Rev. Paul C. Nix, pastor of Highlands Baptist church, led in prayer.

The storm of applause after the closing song, "Hand Me Down a Silver Trumpet, Lord", not only called for an encore, but also bespoke the appreciation of the audience for a well-given play.

trude Harbison, librarian, greeted the guests at the door. Other association members assisting in serving and entertaining were Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, Miss Rebecca Nall, Mrs. Harold N. Coolidge, Mrs. George A. Townsend, Mrs. Lewis Rice, Mrs. George Sausy and Miss Dorothea Harbison, co-librarian.

The attractive posters advertising the tea were done by Jonathan Williams.

The guests enjoyed inspecting the library, with its approximate 4,000 volumes, which serves the Highlands community 12 months in the year, under the supervision of the Misses Gertrude and Dorothea Harbison, co-librarians, and their volunteer summer assistants. For operating expenses, it depends on gifts and membership fees.

The Misses Harbison reported the following new books shelved:

"Shannon's Why", Cronin; "Melissa", Caldwell; "The Foolish Gentlewoman", Sharp; "Pilgram's Inn"; Gouge; "Peony," Buck; "Eagle In The Sky", Mason; "The Bishop's Mantle", Turnbull; "No Trumpet Before Him", White; "Bright Feather", Wilder; "Reluctant Rebel", de Water; "Came a Cavalier", Keyes; "Light In The Window", Rinehart; "The Ides of March", Wilder; "Fire", Stewart; "House Divided", Williams.

Non-fiction, "Malabar Farm", Bromfield; "Civilization on Trial", Toynbee; "We Need Not Fall", Welles; "What the People Want", Arnall; "Jim Farley's Story", Farley; and "Our Unknown Ex-President", Lyons.
