MISS KATHERINE LONG WEDS VICTOR H. PERRY
Miss Katherine Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Wesley Long, became the bride of Victor Horn Perry, son of Mrs. James E. Perry, Sr., and of the late Mr. Perry, in a ceremony performed Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the Franklin Methodist church. The Rev. J. H. Brendall officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Baskets of white gladioli and asters and candelabra holding lighted tapers were used on the altar against a background of native greenery. The windows of the church also held lighted tapers.

Mrs. Henry Cabe, organist, and Richard Sloan, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Mrs. Cabe played "Ave Maria", by Schubert and "Indian Love Call", by Friml, before the ceremony. Mr. Sloan sang "At Dawning", by Cadman, and "O Promise Me", by DeKoven. The traditional wedding marches were used.

For the benediction, Mr. Sloan sang "The Lord's Prayer", by Malotte.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of duchess satin with a fitted bodice trimmed in Chantilly lace. The long full skirt of satin and lace ended in a short circular train and her finger tip veil of French illusion was attached to a tiara of orange blossoms. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of white roses and gardenias with white satin streamers.

Miss Carolyn Long, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of lavender-rose taffeta, made with a bertha, hoop skirt, and bustle back. She carried a nosegay of asters and chrysanthemums in pastel shades.

Miss Jessie Sutton, of Decatur, Ga., cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jack Burney, of East Point, Ga., cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were of August green taffeta made similar to that of the maid of honor, and they, too, carried nosegays of asters and chrysanthemums.

Winton Perry, brother of the groom, was best man.

Groomsmen were Clell Bryant, J. Ward Long, J. E. Perry, Jr., Boyd Sutton, Jr., of Atlanta, and Leland Close and Max Abbot, of Bryson City.

Mrs. Long, mother of the bride, wore a blue crepe gown with silver accessories. She wore a lavender orchid.

Mrs. Perry, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in grey crepe with lavender accessories. She wore a lavender orchid.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. C. N. Dowdle welcomed the guests at the door. In the receiving line were the bride's mother, the groom's mother, and the bridal party.

Receiving in the dining room were Mrs. Mark Dowdle, Mrs. Roy Beshears, Mrs. Reginald Enloe, of Sylva, Mrs. J. E. Perry, Jr., and Mrs. Grace O'Mohundro.

The bride's table was overlaid with an imported linen cloth and centered with a silver bowl containing white asters and gladioli. Silver candlesticks holding lighted tapers were used on each side.

Mrs. Pearl Hunter, aunt of the bride, received in the gift room, and Mrs. Boyd Sutton, of Atlanta, aunt of the bridegroom, kept the bride's book.

Following the reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip in the north. For traveling, the bride wore a gabardine suit of Elizabeth blue.

Mrs. Perry is a graduate of the Franklin High school, and of the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina. She has been a member of the faculty of the Franklin High school for the past two years.

Mr. Perry is a graduate of the Franklin High school and served in the Army Air Corps for two years, one year of which was spent in Germany. He is now enrolled in the school of pharmacy at the University of North Carolina.
