

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

MISS HAZEL BEALE IS BRIDE OF EDWARD POTTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beale, of Highlands, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Hazel Beale, to Edward Potts, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Potts, also of Highlands.

The wedding took place at Clayton, Ga., last Saturday.

2 MISSION CIRCLES TO MEET TUESDAY

Two meetings of the Woman's Missionary union of the Highlands Baptist church will be held Tuesday. The Willie Kate Baldwin circle will meet with Mrs. Carl H. Zoellner at 2:30 in the afternoon, and the Bonnie Jean Ray circle will meet with Mrs. Paul C. Nix at the parsonage at 7:30 in the evening.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Appley and her daughter, Miss Mary Appley, who returned from a six weeks' European trip the middle of August, have taken a cottage at Highlands court, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baty at "Cheonondah". Mrs. Appley and her daughter expect to be in Highlands until late fall.

Miss Mary Holbrook, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank B. Cook, and family at Highlands inn for the past

Judge George Janvier, who left Monday to spend this week in New Orleans, is expected to return for a further stay at his summer home here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Warner, of Miami, Fla., are occupying one of the Marett apartments. Mr. and Mrs. Warner recently have purchased a building site and plan to erect a summer cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jackson and children, Dana and Jimmy, of Ware Shoals, S. C., are spending this week here as guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul C. Nix.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilder, of Mt. Meigs, Ala., were week-end guests of their aunt, Miss Sara Gilder. They were accompanied home by their mother, Mrs. G. C. Gilder, Sr., who spent the past two months here as the guest of Miss Gilder.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman C. Wellington, of Wilmington, Del., arrived last week for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt Terhune, at "Westervelt Fields" on the Dillard road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. King, Jr., of Avon Park, Fla., and Highlands, have announced the birth of a son, Robert R. King, III, August 18 at Walker Memorial hospital in Avon Park. Dr. and Mrs. Harry Moses, of Palm Beach, Fla., returned to the village last week and are guests at Highlands inn. Dr. and Mrs. Moses expect to be here until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eales, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Harris, of Disido Island, Miami Beach, Fla., have returned to their respective homes after spending a week here as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Willard H. Parry at their home on Little Yellow Mountain. Miss Ethel Calloway spent the past week-end in Red Springs, where she visited friends.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated By Paul Henrys

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henry celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday of last week, and were honored with a surprise party at the Baptist parsonage in recognition of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry are faithful and beloved members of the Highlands Baptist church, and immediately following the Wednesday night prayer service the members of the congregation were invited to the parsonage by the Rev. and Mrs. Paul C. Nix, where a three-tiered wedding cake awaited their arrival. Punch was served with the cake. The anniversary gift to Mr. and Mrs. Henry from friends was a crystal water set banded in gold.

Yellow dahlias decorated the rooms.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry are Mrs. Tom Gibson, Mrs. Phil Crane, Ed Henry and Taft Henry.

General Hood And Family Visiting In Highlands

Brigadier-General and Mrs. Reuben C. Hood and their children, Martha, Sally and Tommy Hood, arrived Wednesday from Washington, D. C., for a visit with Mrs. Hood's mother, Mrs. E. B. Thomas, on Cullasaja drive. They will leave soon for Rio de Janeiro, where General Hood will be air attache to the American embassy.

Many millions of acres that have been used intensively to grow war and emergency food crops can be rehabilitated most efficiently by seeding them down to grasses and legumes.

FERNOW AGAIN HEADS MUSEUM

All Officers Re-elected; Miss Howell Re-Named As Director

All officers of the Highlands Museum and Biological laboratory were re-elected at the annual meeting, held Sunday afternoon at the museum building.

They include B. E. Fernow, of Clemson college, president; Dr. W. McA. Deacon, of Vanderbilt university, vice-president; Mrs. Mason Valentine, secretary; and Miss Gertrude Harbison, treasurer.

Miss Theima Howell, of Wesleyan college, was again elected resident director of the Biological laboratory.

At the trustees' meeting, following the annual meeting, the five trustees elected for the four-year period, 1948 to 1952, are: Miss Howell, of Macon, Ga.; Dr. Eugene P. Odum, of the University of Georgia, Athens; Dr. A. J. Sharp, of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville; Dr. Ralph Sargent, of Haverford college, Haverford, Pa.; and Robert Hager, of Highlands.

Eleven of the corporation's 20 trustees were in attendance at the meeting, and three trustees voted by proxy.

Legion Post To Hold Its Annual Party

The Highlands Memorial post of the American Legion will hold its annual pre-convention party Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at Cliffside lake. This meeting will mark the beginning of the 1949 membership campaign, and members are asked to bring their 1949 membership dues, as well as their 1948 membership cards. Married members are invited to bring their wives, and unmarried members may bring a "lady friend", Commander Glenn Shuler said.

Details about the American Legion National convention, scheduled to be held in Miami, Fla., in October, will be announced at Saturday's meeting.

In a meeting of the post's executive committee last week, W. A. Swain was elected as adjutant to fill the unexpired term of Richard W. Pearson, who, with his family, will leave at an early date for an extended trip to Birmingham, England, Mrs. Pearson's former home.

Rites Conducted In Sarasota For Decatur J. Pelot

Funeral services were held in Sarasota, Fla., Monday for Decatur J. Pelot, 56, who died at his summer home here in the late afternoon of Wednesday, August 25, following a stroke suffered earlier in the day.

Mr. Pelot was a Sarasota building contractor. He and Mrs. Pelot spent their winters in the Florida city and their summers here at "Circle Point" in the Mirror Lake section.

He was a veteran of World War I, and Mrs. Pelot, who survives him, is treasurer of the Florida Woman's auxiliary of the American Legion. They had no children.
