FRED SNYDER MARRIES MISS MARTIN IN TEXAS

Miss Ruth Martin became the bride of Fred Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder, of Franklin, Route 4, in a double ring ceremony solemnized in the First Baptist church, Longview, Texas, August 11. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Martin, of Longview. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Sloan Gentry.

White gladiol, plumosa fern,

Virginia creeper, and lighted tapers in seven-branched candelabra were used in the decorations for the twilight ceremony, which was marked by a program of nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a suit of white wool, and her corsage was a single white orchid. She wore an antique replica cameo necklace and earrings, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Robert F. Carlock, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and James D. Higdon, of Franklin, was best man.

A reception in the church foyer followed the ceremony.

The couple will make their home in Longview, where Mr. Snyder, a veteran of three years' service in the navy during World War 2, is employed in LeTourneau Machine shop.

MISS CONSTANCE IS BRIDE OF LARRY CABE

Miss Marjorie Constance and Larry Cabe, both of Franklin, were married in a candlelight ceremony Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Cabe. The bride is the daughter of Ezra Constance, of Richlands, Va., and of the late Mrs. Constance.

The Rev. Hoyt Evans, Franklin Presbyterian pastor, officiated, in the presence of members of the immediate families and a few close friends.

White gladiol were used in decorating the Cabe home, and the fireplace, before which the vows were spoken, was banked with mountain greenery, while candelabra on each side held lighted cathedral tapers.

The bride, dressed in a white wool flannel suit with black accessories, entered the living room with the bridegroom. Her corsage was an orchid.

An informal reception, given by the bridegroom's parents, followed the wedding ceremony. Miss Betty Constance, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Mildred Cabe and Mrs. Curtis Pearson assisted in serving.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Cabe will be at home, for the present, at the home of the groom's parents.
