MRS. H. G. STORY

CHRISTENING SERVICE FOR JOHN CONKLE

A christening service for John Conkle, ten months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conkle of Cashiers, N. C., was held Sunday afternoon at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, pastor. Frank L. Allen and Robert P. Jessup were named as godfathers and Miss Barbara Gibson as godmother. The christening service preceded the evening prayer and sermon by Mr. Morgan.

JENKINS COUPLE GIVEN MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Penland entertained with a miscellaneous shower Saturday night at their home on Billy Cabin Mountain, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jenkins, whose marriage was an event of early September. Mrs. Jenkins is the former Miss Estelle McCall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCall of the Gold Mine section of Macon County. Mr. Jenkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Butler Jenkins of the Flat Mountain section.

Announcement has also been made of the marriage of Miss Viola McCall to Harold Jenkins on Thursday, September 25th, the two sisters marrying brothers.

PRESBYTERIANS INVITED TO BASKET PICNIC

Members and friends of the Highlands Presbyterian church are invited to attend a basket picnic lunch on Sunday at the home of Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel, following the Sunday morning worship service at the church.

In making the announcement, the Rev. R. B. DuPre, pastor, said that the Misses Ravenel would supply the tea or coffee to go with the basket lunch furnished by those attending.

The Girl Scout troop enjoyed a campfire supper on Sunset rocks Friday night with their leader, Miss Dorothea Harbison, marking the first of the season's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Crunkleton are spending the winter in West Palm Beach, Fla., where Mr. Crunkleton has employment.

Mrs. Louise Bascom Baratt, who was a patient at the Angel Hospital in Franklin for several weeks, has returned to her former home here on Satulah Mountain, to continue her convalescence before going on to New York City.

O. E. Young, Jr., left last week for Valdosta, Ga., where he is enrolled as a student at Emory University.

Mrs. Nash Broyles has returned to her hospital work in Richmond, Va., after spending the season here with her sisters, Miss Caroline Hall and Mrs. W. R. Potts and family. Enroute home Mrs. Broyles visited her brother Jack M. Hall and family in Atlanta.

Mrs. A. C. Holt, who has been a patient at the Angel Hospital in Franklin for the past week is reported much improved and is expected to return home in a few days.

Lloyd C. Emory of Vanderbilt University, former summer director of the Highlands Museum, was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Halpin Smith at their home on Satulah Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rockwell Nall have returned to Carrabelle, Fla., for the winter after a vacation at "Tuck-Away", their home at Shortoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Pearson and young son, Howard William, left Sunday for a short visit in Stamford, Conn., with Mr. and Mrs. Allen L. Whitman, before going on to New York, from where they will sail for Birmingham, England, Mrs. Pearson's former home, for an extended stay.

The 200-pound pig given by S. Porter Pierson in the contest for the benefit for the Highlands Community Hospital, which closed Saturday afternoon, was won by Miss Zillah Wilson.

Miss Sue Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hicks of Mirror Lake Road, left Sunday for Charlotte, where she has accepted a position with the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Miss Ruth Lewis of Atlanta was the weekend guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. T. Maret, at her home on Main Street.

Miss Edna Norton has resumed here studies at Brevard College. Her sister, Miss Leona Norton, will return for the second semester, graduating in May.

Highlands Club Hears McKelvey On Telephone Future

Russell McKelvey manager of the Western Carolina Telephone Co., Franklin, was an interesting speaker at the Highlands Rotary club last week, talking on what the telephone company hoped to do toward improving its service. Mr. McKelvey said that within a year or so the company hoped to install automatic or dial telephones, stating that the number of Highlands telephones had been increased to approximately two hundred, and that within the next five years the number was expected to reach five hundred.

The Highlands club also announced the gift by George W. Woodruff of name and identification badges to each of the club members. The badges are in the form large buttons, measuring about three inches across,

Fire Destroys J. H. Dewey $40,000 Home

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the $40,000 summer home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dewey at "Whiteside View" on the Asheville road, about eight o'clock Thursday night. This home had just been completed the past spring and burned while Mr. and Mrs. Dewey were having dinner in Highlands. The house and contents were a total loss, with reported inadequate insurance coverage.

Mrs. Dewey is a sister to Mrs. Robert Rosemond of Charleston, S. C., who with Mr. Rosemond has owned a summer home in Cashiers for a number of years. The Deweys are from New York City.

Library Trustees Hold Year's Last Meeting And Accept Budget

The last trustees' meeting of the Hudson Library Association for the year was held Monday afternoon at the library, with Mrs. J. A. Hines, president, presiding. The annual budget was accepted at this meeting and committees appointed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, president of the Satulah Club was appointed chairman of the Satulah Club room committee, which is composed of members from the library association and from the club. Other members elected on this committee are Miss Rebecca Nall, Mrs. Harry Holt, Miss Gertrude Harbison.

On the courtesy committee are Mrs. Lewis Rice and Miss Gertrude Harbison. Reappointed to the book committee are Miss Gertrude Harbison, Miss Dorothea Harbison, Miss Cora Millmore, Mrs. J. A. Wooten, and Mrs. Sidney McCarty.
