MRS. EMORY HUNNICUTT
Society Editor, Telephone 211MISS CAROLYN NOLEN WEDS
REV. J. H. BRENDALE, JR.

Mrs. Frank H. Nolen announced Tuesday the marriage of her daughter, Miss Carolyn Nolen, to the Rev. J. H. Brenda, Jr., pastor of the Central Methodist church, Kings Mountain, and until recently pastor of the Franklin Methodist church.

The ceremony was performed Monday evening at 8 p. m. at the home of Bishop Costen J. Harrell, of Gastonia.

MISS MARY SMITH BECOMES BRIDE OF ROBERT FRAZIER

Miss Mary Ellen Smith, daughter of John Smith, of the Cartoogechaye community and the late Mrs. John Smith, became the bride of Robert Haywood Frazier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Frazier, of Franklin, in a double ring ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents, October 2 at 6 p. m.

The Rev. D. P. Grant performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a light blue gabardine suit with black accessories to match. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Only members of the immediate families and close friends attended the wedding.

An informal reception followed at the home of the bridegroom. The house was decorated throughout with arrangements of fall flowers and evergreens. The table was covered with a hand made lace table cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked with crystals holding lighted tapers.

Both the bride and groom attended the Franklin high school. Following three years of overseas service in the United States Army, Mr. Frazier is at present employed by the Nantahala Power and Light Company.

The couple have recently returned from a honeymoon trip through the southern states and are making their home near Franklin.

home of the groom's grandfather, Rev. J. I. Vinson, of Franklin, Route 2.

Rev. Vinson officiated, using the double ring ceremony. Only members of the families and a few close friends were present.

Before the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was rendered.

The marriage took place in front of an improvised altar of native evergreens flanked on either side by a vase of large white dahlias.

The bride was dressed in a pastel green suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white rose buds.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Jewel Norton, sister of the groom.

Sam Ramsey, of Charleston S. C., was best man.

Immediately following the wedding an informal reception was given. Placed in the center of the bridal table was a three tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Following a wedding trip through Tennessee and Kentucky, the young couple will be at home in Charleston.

Out of town guests included the bride's father and Mrs.
