MISS DALRYMPLE BECOMES BRIDE OF ARVEL PARKER

Miss Mary Frances Dalrymple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Dalrymple of Franklin, was married to Arvel Parker, son of Mr. W. V. Parker and the late Mrs. Parker of Franklin, in a candlelight ceremony on Thursday afternoon, October 14, at five o'clock at Mt. Hope Baptist church.

The Reverend W. L. Sorrells, pastor of the bride and groom, officiated using the double ring ceremony. Arrangements of fall flowers and native mountain greenery banked the chancel, and lighted white tapers were placed in graduated candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, pianist, and Miss Barbara Hale, soloist, of Mars Hill College, roommate of the bride. Mrs. Cabe played "Indian Love Call" and "Ave Maria" and Miss Hale sang "Because" prior to the ceremony. The intermediate choir sang "I Would Be True" as the bridal party entered. "To A Wild Rose" was played during the taking of the vows. The traditional wedding march was used as the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of winter white wool with which she wore green accessories. She carried a bouquet consisting of three white gardenias, showered with satin streamers placed upon a white Bible covered with satin.

Miss Doris Dalrymple, sister of the bride, served as her maid of honor. She wore a dress of turquoise blue wool, fashioned like the dress worn by the bride, with which she wore black accessories. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations edged with pink gladioli and showered with pink satin streamers.

Robert Parker, brother of the groom, served as best man. Cecil Parker, brother of the groom, and Harold Enloe served as ushers.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalrymple of Lenoir, N. C., Mrs. Arthur P. Evans, of Waynesville, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Carpenter, of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cope and son of Sylva, Mrs. Ruby Kitchens of Hayesville, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harkins of Candler, Miss Reba Carpenter of Canton, Mrs. Robert Glass of Lenoir, Misses Barbara Hal and Margaret James of Mars Hill College and Waynesville, who were classmates of the bride, and Mrs. Henry Hale of Waynesville.

Mrs. Parker is a graduate of Franklin High school and attended Mars Hill College, Mars Hill, N. C. During the past summer she was employed by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, serving as the assistant Associational Missionary of Cherokee and Clay counties. She is now employed by Belk's department store in Franklin.

Mr. Parker is a veteran of World War II, having served four years with the U. S. Navy in the South Atlantic and European theaters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Dalrymple, parents of the bride, entertained with a cake-cutting on Wednesday night honoring the bride elect.

The bride's table, which was covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. This was flanked on either side by double crystal candelabra holding white tapers.

Miss Sarah Dalrymple, sister of the bride, assisted by Miss Nell Waldrup served punch. Miss Margaret Jones and Miss Emily Faye Parker, sister of the groom served cake.

Only members of the bridal party, the families, and a few close friends were present.
