Mr. DuPree motored north with the Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel on their return home for the winter, the party taking four days for the trip through the Shenandoah valley, the caverns, and other places of interest. While away, Mr. DuPree visited 20 churches, including the National Cathedral in Washington.

Henry Cleaveland Named As Highlands Fire Chief

Henry A. Cleaveland has been appointed fire chief to replace Tom Harbison, who has moved out of town. Mr. Cleaveland's duties will be to hold semi-fire drills with the volunteer fire department, inspection of fire zone for fire hazards, and the issuing of building permits. His appointment was made November 1.

ORGANIZE GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL

Benefit Rummage Sale To Be Held Nov. 20 At Highlands

The leaders of the Highlands Girl Scout troops and the Girl Scout committees recently organized a local Girl Scout council, electing Mrs. Frank B. Cook as chairman and Mrs. William C. Nall as secretary-treasurer.

The Brownie, intermediate and senior troops with their leaders and adult committee members are all members of the National Girl Scouts, and of the Nantahala Area, Girl Scout council. There are also a number of associate adult members of the Nantahala council in Highlands. Present at the scout council organization meeting were Miss Rebecca C. Nall, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church, which is the sponsoring organization; Mrs. W. A. Hays, district representative to the Nantahala council; Mrs. Tom Harbison, Mrs. Tudor Hell, Miss Dorothea Harbison, Girl Scout committee members and troop leaders; Mrs. Manson Valentine, Mrs. William A. Matthews, Mrs. Frank Cook and Mrs. William C. Nall, committee members and council officers.

Mrs. Harbison reported that Miss Frances Barr of Franklin, arts and crafts teacher at the Nonah center at Cartoogechaye, has consented to give arts and crafts instructions to the girls without charge, and classes are to start at an early date. Since materials will be needed for these courses, the council voted to put on a rummage sale jointly with the Hudson library Saturday, November 20, to raise funds for the materials and other Girl Scout expenses.

The library already has on hand considerable material which was given for a sale of this kind and the Scouts and council members will collect more, the two organizations to put on the sale together. All Girl Scout mothers are asked to assist in collecting this material, which may be left either at the Scout room at the library or with Mrs. Cook at Highlands inn.

In connection with the rummage sale, the following committees were appointed: Collection of material, Mrs. Tom Harbison, Mrs. Clarence Mitchell, and Dr. Jessie Moreland; sorting and pricing, Mrs. Manson Valentine, Mrs. William A. Matthews, and Mrs. W. A. Hays; publicity, Mrs. Frank Cook, Miss Dorothea Harbison, and Mrs. W. C. Nall.

Other council members and volunteer helpers included Mrs. Robert Hager, Mrs. Allan Brown, Mrs. Sam Baty, Mrs. Byron Simpson, Girl Scout leader of Palm Beach, Fla., Mrs. Upton Ewing, Girl Scout leader of Miami, Dr. Jessie Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DuPree, and Mrs. L. A. Edwards.

Mrs. Harbison expressed the hope that all Girl Scout mothers who can offer assistance in Scout projects will contact council members.

At a brief but impressive investiture ceremony at the regular meeting of the Brownie Scouts on Tuesday, 11 girls were presented with the official pin and the troop crest of Highlands Brownie Scout Troop No. 17.

Scouts receiving the pin and crest were Ann Harbison, Beverly McKinney, Helen Valentine, Nora Lowe, Guerry Matthews, Ann Rideout, Margaret Ann Mitchell, Peggy DuPree,

SCIENCE PUPILS VISIT ENKA AND CANTON PLANTS

All-Day Field Trip Is Made By 29 Students At Highlands

On a field trip last Thursday in connection with their studies, 29 students of the chemistry and physics classes at Highlands school enjoyed an all-day trip to the plants of the American Enka corporation at Enka, and the Champion Paper and Fiber company at Canton, with O. F. Summer, school principal and teacher of the classes, in charge.

At Enka the group spent two hours on a tour of the plant under the direction of guides provided by the corporation, where they saw science put to work in a practical manner in the making of rayon, and had lunch at the plant's cafeteria as guests of the firm.

In the afternoon at Canton they saw how paper is made.

The students have been asked by Mr. Summer to write papers giving their observations of the day, some of the papers to be carried in the November issue of "The Mountain Trail".

In addition to Mr. Summer, car owners furnishing transportation for the trip included C. E. Mitchell, J. E. Hicks, H. S. Talley, Mrs. J. R. Phillips, and Mrs. John S. Sewell. Mrs. Sewell's car being driven by Earle Crunkleton.

Each student contributed a small sum to which was added $10 from the school fund to help in defraying the expenses of the trip.

Hospital Work

Delayed By Scarcity Of Materials

S. C. Russell, chairman of the board of directors of the Highlands Community hospital, explained this week that delay in work in the hospital has been due to several causes, chief among them being the necessity of changing the foundation, due to inability to obtain cement. Excavation has been completed and footings are scheduled to be laid this week. The foundations will be of concrete, Mr. Russell said, and will be constructed as rapidly as possible, subject to the availability of materials and weather conditions.

Tom Harbison will be in charge of construction work and it is hoped to have the initial building, the Mabel E. Hays Clinic, completed before next summer. Architectural work is being contributed by Upton C. Ewing of Coral Gables, Fla., and Highlands. Mr. Russell added that those who have pledged labor will be asked for services as needed.

Joan McKinney, Sandra Baty, and Lila Reese. New members of the troop who will be eligible for pins and crests after completing requirements are Barbara Calloway, Sammie Calloway and Christine Crunkleton.

Quick Action By Phone Operator And Night Police Averts Danger Of Serious Blaze In Highlands

Quick action on the part of the night telephone operator, Miss Frances Hedden and Night Policeman T. W. Phillips averted a near tragedy at an early hour Saturday morning when the inside of the telephone office caught fire, reportedly from a short circuit caused by a tree's falling on the wires during the night's heavy rain and windstorm.

The continuous wall of the fire siren set off by Miss Hedden when she was awakened by the night bell, and the quick work of Policeman Phillips, who forced his way into Highlands laundry for fire extinguishers is credited with saving the entire block. In this block are Hotel Edwards, Rae's Gift shop and Bryson's garage, surrounding the exchange office on three sides.

Considerable damage was done to the office equipment, and it was up in the day Saturday before long distance connections were re-established, many of the local phones remaining out of operation throughout the day.

Mrs. Chastain's

Funeral Is Conducted At Episcopal Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Nettie Keener Chastain, who died at her home here Monday, were conducted Friday afternoon at the Episcopal church, of which she was a member, by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, and burial was in Highlands cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dewey Hopper, Tom Harbison, Earle Crunkleton, George Cleaveland, Jess Keener and Charles Dorris. Assisting Mrs. Harry Holt with the flowers were the Misses Juanita Wood, Marie Talley, Lols Potts and Mary Rogers. The funeral was delayed awaiting the arrival of a son, Thomas Chastain, stationed with the U. S. army in Alaska, whose plane was twice grounded because of heavy rains and fog, and who had to make the last lap of the journey by bus, arriving after the funeral.

Survivors include her husband, Edward Daniel Chastain; four daughters, Mrs. Lillie Crisp, of Gneiss, and Louise, Pearl and Janie of Highlands, three sons, Carl and Fred, of Highlands, and Thomas, of Alaska; two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Smith, of New York, and Mrs. Carrie Burris, of Highlands; three half-sisters, Mrs. Robert Rice, of Highlands, Mrs. Herbert Millkey, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Joseph Maggio, of New York; and one brother, Mell Keener, of Highlands.

Bryant funeral home of Franklin was in charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends who were so kind at the time of the death of our wife and mother.

DANCE AT HELEN'S BARN

Saturday Nights

Open 8:30 to 12:00 o'clock

MR. Woodrow Teague of Prentiss is shown feeding corn to his homemade corn shredder which is powered by a 5 H. P. electric motor. Looking on with interest is Douglas, the youngest member of the family.

Mr. Teague combined the rollers from an old shredder with his ensilage cutter to do the job of snapping the ear corn from the stalks and blowing the fodder into his barn loft. A small electric fan is mounted below the snap-rolls to blow the chaff and dust from the ear corn.

By using electric power Mr. Teague saves renting any equipment. He uses his jeep to haul in the corn from the field. In addition, the operating cost of the motor is about 5¢ per hour as compared with the much more expensive operation of a tractor.

Earlier in the season, Mr. Teague also used the same 5 H. P. motor successfully to fill one of his 35 ft. silos, using a Model L Papec cutter.

One 5 H. P. motor will grind your feed for 3c per 100 lbs., fill your silo for 2c per ton, saw your wood for 3c per cord, cure your hay for 75c per ton, bale your hay for 4c per ton and do many other jobs for you to make farming easier and more profitable.
