Calves From Macon Win Most of Prizes at Show

the show were guests of the Asheville Kiwanis club at a dinner last Wednesday evening, following the show. At the meeting Mr. Whitmire spoke on "Raising a Champion."

Individual members of the Franklin Rotary club put up the money for the purchase of Gregory's grand champion, and it is planned to cut the animal up into five-pound packages and auction these, the balance obtained above the purchase price to go toward paying for the furnace the club is installing in the Slagle Memorial building.

Macon business firms and individuals who paid premium prices to buy other Macon calves include the Farmers Federation, H. L. Bryant, Duncan Motor company, and Franklin Frozen Foods, Inc.

Adults attending the show, in addition to Mr. Whitmire and Mr. Fagg, included M. L. Dowdle, S. W. Mendenhall, Wiley Brown, Oscar Ledford, W. W. (Bill) Sloan, and H. L. Bryant.

Kirk, Sylva Man, Is New Chairman Of Scout Group

Paul Kirk, of Sylva, is the new chairman of the Smoky Mountain district committee, Boy Scouts of America, succeeding W. C. Hennessee, of Sylva, who has served as chairman for the past year.

Mr. Kirk was elected at a dinner meeting of the committee, held at Riverview inn here last Friday evening.

B. W. McGlamery was chosen vice-chairman, succeeding John D. Alsop.

Hugh Monteith, of Sylva, was reelected district commissioner.

After some discussion, it was decided to cancel this year's winter camp for Scouts at Camp Daniel Boone. The decision was due to the fact that most of the public schools in the district will have brief Christmas vacations, due to the later start last fall, which was occasioned by the polio situation.

State College Hints To Farm Homemakers

By RUTH CURRENT
State Home Demonstration Agent

Do you eat the same things for breakfast each morning, buy the same cuts of meat each week? Let's get out of that menu-planning rut and use some of the other good foods. To often we build our meals out of what's in the pantry out of what's in the pantry out of what should be in our meals.

How many different vegetables have you eaten during the past week? Vegetables vary greatly in their food value and in the minerals and vitamins they contain. Let's not stick to three or four "old stand-bys" but try some new ones on our menus.

Many of the vegetable-tomatoes, cabbage, carrots, turnips, turnip greens, cauliflower, green peppers, beets, and spinach—which we ordinarily cook could be eaten raw to give variety and to preserve more of the food value.

Try a salad made of raw cabbage and raw spinach or other greens, with a good French dressing poured over it. Have you tried raw cauliflower dipped in cream cheese? Raw green pepper strips, turnip, parsnip and carrot sticks and curls, cauliflower flowerets,

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

Thanksgiving

For the hay and the corn and the wheat that is reaped,
For the labor well done and the barns that are heaped...
For the trade and the skill and the wealth in our land,
For the cunning and strength of the working man's hand...
For our country extending from sea to sea,
The land that is known as the land of the free,
Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!
